WILLIAM V. BIDWILL
Chairman

As the Football Cardinals celebrate their 25th anniversary in St. Louis, WIlliam V. Bidwill is beginning his 41st year of involvement with the organization and serves in the full-time capacity as Chairman.

Mr. Bidwill, 52, takes great pride in his involvement in the oldest continuous professional football franchise in the nation which dates back to 1898. In 1920, the team became one of the two charter members of the National Football League along with the Chicago Bears. The Bidwill family purchased the club in 1932 with Charles Bidwill, Bill's father and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, serving as President until his death in 1947. Over the next fifteen years, Mrs. Violet Bidwill took control overseeing the team's move to St. Louis in 1960. In 1962, Bill along with his brother, Charles Bidwill, Jr. took control of the team until Bill became the club's sole owner in 1972.

Since moving to St. Louis twenty-five years ago, the Big Red have enjoyed two divisional championships in 1974 and 1975 and a return to the playoffs in 1982.

Mr. Bidwill has been involved in every area of operations with the Football Cardinals. He takes great pride in his continuous involvement and support of numerous civic and charitable organizations in St. Louis.

A graduate of Georgetown University and a Navy veteran, Bill and his wife Nancy have four sons, William, Jr., Patrick, Michael and Timothy-and a daughter, Nicole.

BING DEVINE
President

With a background of more than 40 years in the administration of professional sports, Bing Devine enters his sixth year at the executive level with the Cardinals. Bing possesses the unique distinction of serving as the President of both a major league baseball team as well as an NFL franchise.

He first joined the Cardinals in 1979 as the Vice-President of Administration, then in 1979 was named a Vice-President with the Montreal Expos baseball team. Six months later, in July of 1982, he returned to the Cardinals at his present capacity.

Prior to entering the football profession, Devine spent 21 highly-successful years as a top executive in Major League Baseball. He built the foundations of four pennant-winning teams with the St. Louis Baseball Cardinals and New York Mets and was twice voted Major League Executive of the Year. He served two separate terms covering 18 years as the Executive Vice-President and General Manager of the Baseball Cardinals (1958-64 and 1968-78), and three years and President and General Manager of the New York Mets (1965-67). He was also a member of the San Francisco Giants front office prior to his joining the Football Cardinals in 1979.

His professional sports career began in the publicity department of the Baseball Cardinals in 1939. Two years later, he was promoted to Business Manager of the Johnson City farm team in Tennessee, where he also played second base in 1941. Following a stint in the Navy in World War II, he returned to St. Louis as an administrator with Cardinals' owners Bob Hannegan and Fred Saigh and was soon promoted to General Manager of the team's top minor league club in Rochester, New York.

Bing then returned again to St. Louis in 1955 as the assistant to Baseball Cardinal General Manager Dick Meyer, and succeeded Frank Lane as the club's top official after the 1957 season.

A native of St. Louis, Bing attended University City High School and is a graduate of Washington University of St. Louis. He and his wife, Mary, have three daughters – Mrs. Joanne Schaumburg, Janice Devine, and Mrs. Jane Pilkington.

LARRY WILSON
Director of Pro Personnel

1984 marks not only the Silver Anniversary of the Football Cardinals in St. Louis, it also keynotes Larry Wilson's 25th season in the organization. Now in his 12th year as an executive in the Cardinals' front office, Larry begins his eighth season as the Director of Pro Personnel, spending his first four years as the club's Director of Pro Scouting from 1972-76.

From the time both Larry Wilson and the Cardinals arrived in 1960, his name has been synonymous with the excitement and success of Big Red football.

During his playing career, Larry was a six-time All-Pro and played in eight Pro Bowls as a free safety. He owns nearly every club record for interceptions, including an amazing 52 thefts during his glorious career. He enjoyed one of the finest seasons ever by a defensive back in 1966 when he led the NFL with 10 interceptions and tied a league record by intercepting a pass in seven consecutive games. His excellence during a 13-year career earned him induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in January, 1978, after the minimum five-year waiting period. His jersey number 8 is one of only four to have been retired by the club.

Wilson began his career as a seventh-round draft choice from Utah where he was a standout running back. When injuries cut into the veteran ranks his rookie year with St. Louis, Larry was switched into the defensive backfield and given the opportunity at cornerback before settling in at free safety. Along with former coach Chuck Drulis, he innovated one of today's most potent defensive ploys - the safety blitz.

His wife, Nancy, works in the Sports Department of KMOX Radio, the Cardinals' flagship station. They reside in Chesterfield, Mo.

HEAD COACH 25TH

JIM HANIFAN
Head Coach

Entering his fifth year as head coach of the Big Red, Jim Hanifan has the Football Cardinals on the move, coming off two straight winning seasons, including a trip to the playoffs in 1982. Last year marked a dramatic turn-around for a team that lost five of its first six regular season games. Hanifan and his coaching staff battled back with seven wins in their final ten game schedule and just missed a playoff berth when the experts had counted them out of any post-season race.

Hanifan inherited a fifth place team following the 1979 season and quickly instilled a winning and positive attitude, improving from a 5-11 mark in 1980 to a 7-9 lost record in 1981. He officially took over the head coaching duties on January 30, 1980.

But in his third season as head coach, he found the winning mark as his team elevated their record to 5-4 and the Big Red's first trip to the playoffs since 1975. The Big Red got no farther than the first round in the playoffs, however, losing at Green Bay 41-16. However, Hanifan and his staff were building a winning tradition with the Football Cardinals as evidenced by the Big Red's 8-7-1 mark last year.

Hanifan was no stranger to the Big Red when he took over the head coaching reins in 1980. He originally joined the Football Cardinals in 1973 as the offensive line coach under Don Coryell and remained in that capacity through 1978, Bud Wilkinson's first year as head coach.

It was during those years when Hanifan served as the offensive line coach that the Football Cardinals developed the reputation and respect throughout the NFL as having the premier offensive line in the game. One of the highlights of this unit was in 1975 when they set an NFL record by allowing the fewest quarterback sacks in a season (8). It was also during this period that All-Pros Dierdorf, Banks, Dobler and Young allowed the fewest quarterback sacks in the NFC from 1974 through 1978. Hanifan was honored in 1977 for his accomplishments by being named NFL Assistant Coach of the Year.

His only departure from the Cardinals was in 1979 when he joined Don Coryell in San Diego in the capacity of assistant head coach, helping the Chargers to the AFC West Crown as they set an NFL mark for most yards passing in a season.

Hanifan, a native Californian, began his coaching career at Charter Oak High in Covina, California in 1959 where he remained for three years. He then left for the coaching ranks at Glendale College where he stayed for another three seasons from 1964-1966. It was at Glendale where he worked with Chuck Banker, currently the Big Red's special teams coach.

He then went on to the University of Utah for four years (1967-1970) before returning to his alma mater, the University of California, where he stayed for two years in charge of the passing game. His last college stint was in 1972 when he joined Don Coryell at San Diego State, working with the offensive line for two years before coming to the Cardinals in 1974.

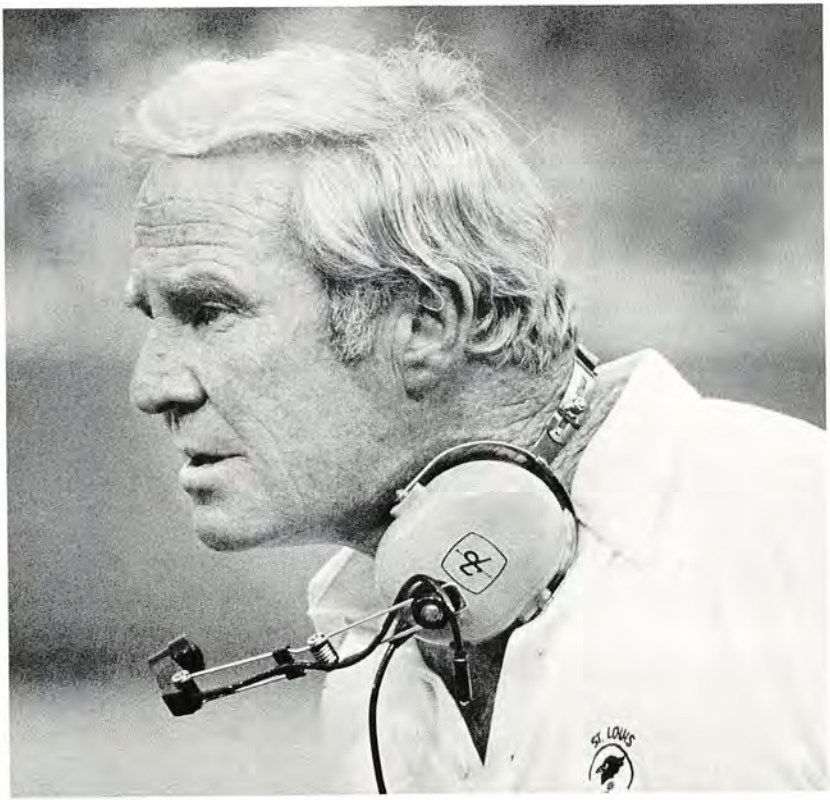
His college playing career at the University of California spanned three years and was highlighted when he led the nation in receiving in his senior year (1954) as an end and was awarded All-Coast honors. He played at Toronto in the Canadian Football League in 1955 and the next year, played for coach Coryell in the Army. He also played semi-pro football for the Salinas Packers in California, where he teamed with assistant head coach Floyd Peters.

Hanifan was born on September 21, 1933 in Compton, California. He and his wife, Mariana, have two children, Kathleen 24, and James 12.



FLOYD PETERS

Assistant Head Coach, Defense

Since his first season as assistant head coach in 1982, Floyd Peters has continued to improve the defensive line in both physical skills and attitude. Working with defensive coordinator and secondary coach Tom Bettis and linebacker coach Rudy Feldman, he also helps to establish the Big Red's overall defensive scheme.

Peters' third season with the Cardinals is his eleventh as an NFL assistant, including one year as player-coach under Vince Lombardi with the Washington Redskins in 1970. He joined the Cardinals in 1982 after being the defensive line coach for the Detroit Lions from 1978 through 1981.

Floyd was the first assistant head coach Monte Clark hired at Detroit in 1978. In his first season, he created the Detroit "Silver Rush" defensive line which set a club record with 55 quarterback sacks. The next three seasons the Lions registered 44, 44, and 45 sacks to rank among the conference leaders.

He joined the Lions from San Francisco where he coached the defensive line in 1976 and 1977. Peters gained recognition his first season for building the 49er "Gold Rush" front four. That unit led the NFL in quaterback sacks with 61 the same season. His first full-time pro coaching position was with the New York Giants from 1974 to 1976.

In this twelve year playing career, Peters was elected to the Pro Bowl three times (1964, '66, '67) as a member of the Philadelphia Eagles. His playing career began as an eighth-round draft choice at Baltimore in 1958. He played for Cleveland (1959-62) and Detroit (1963) before joining the Eagles in 1964 where he remained until ending his career as a player-coach with Washington.

Floyd's college career began at San Francisco State where he was a defensive tackle and guard. After graduation, before being drafted by Baltimore, he played semi-pro football for the Salinas Packers in Salinas, California. While there, he was a teammate and roommate of Jim Hanifan.

Born in Council Bluffs, Iowa on May 21, 1936, Floyd and his wife, Nancy, have four sons, Craig, Kelly, Dean and Allen.

ROD DOWHOWER
Offensive Coordinator

A major factor in the Cardinals' recent success has been the contribution of offensive coordinator Rod Dowhower, now in his third season in St. Louis. Coming to the club after three years as offensive coordinator and receivers' coach at Denver, Rod returns to the team where he got his first NFL coaching experience as a member of Don Coryell's staff in 1973. His varied background in offensive football, tutoring under the likes of Coryell, Dick Vermeil, Bill Walsh, and Dan Reeves, underlines him as one of the brightest offensive minds in the league.

The offensive coordinator at Stanford from 1977-78, Rod was elevated to the head coaching post in 1979 and finished with a 5-5-1 mark. He served as offensive coordinator at Boise St. in 1976 after taking the reins at the same position at UCLA in 1974.

Rod began his collegiate coaching career in 1966 at San Diego St. as a quarterback coach and offensive coordinator for a total of seven years, developing three top-flight quarterbacks in Brian Sipe, Dennis Shaw, and Don Horn.

Rod first played under Coryell as a small college All-American quarterback at San Diego St., and spent two years on the inactive list with the San Francisco 49ers.

Born April 15, 1945, Rod and his wife, Nancy, reside in St. Louis and have two sons, Brian and Deron.

CHUCK BANKER
Special Teams and Assistant Defensive Coach

Chuck Banker enters his fifth year with the Cardinals in a dual role with both the special teams and the defense. He has been a major factor in the performance of the Cardinals' excellence on punt and kickoff coverage units, and his tutelage of punter Carl Birdsong paid off in Birdsong's trip to the Pro Bowl in 1983.

Banker began his coaching career at Glendale Junior College in 1962 alongside head coach Jim Hanifan. He then joined the staff at Utah in 1966 along with Hanifan as the linebacker coach and met Cardinal assistant Tom Lovat. From 1968-70 he coached at Westminster College, including one season as head coach. He returned to Utah in 1971 to succeed Jim Hanifan as offensive head coach, and in 1974 became head coach at Viewmont High School in Salt Lake City.

Two years later, he joined the staff at Boise St. as the linebacker coach and defensive coordinator, capping his stay there with a defense that led the conference in fewest points allowed enroute to a 10-1 season in 1979. He then joined the St. Louis Football Cardinal staff in 1980.

Born in Prescott, Arizona, Banker and his wife, Karen, reside in Ballwin, Mo. with their three children: Christy (11), Sara (9), and Bryan (7).

TOM BETTIS
Defensive Coordinator

This season, Tom Bettis will be beginning his seventh year as the Cardinals' defensive coordinator and third as its coach of the secondary. His job will again be coordinating the club's overall pass coverage, as well as working with Floyd Peters on the overall defensive scheme. Previously, Bettis was secondary coach with the Kansas City Chiefs for 12 years before joining the Big Red in 1978.

At Kansas City, his secondaries led the AFC in interceptions five consecutive years (1966-1970) and also in 1974. A major component of those secondaries was Big Red coach Emmitt Thomas, whom Bettis converted from a receiver to an All-Pro cornerback. The Chiefs won one of two Super Bowls while Bettis was there, along with two AFC titles and making the playoffs two other seasons.

Tom began his coaching career with the NFL in 1966 and before that, he was in private business, after retiring in 1963 as an active player and member of the World Champion Chicago Bears. His playing career began as the number one draft choice of Green Bay in 1955 and was a starting linebacker until 1961, helping them win a championship. In 1962 he was traded to Pittsburgh before joining Chicago the following year.

Bettis was an All-American linebacker and offensive guard at Purdue in 1953 and 1954, and was named All-Big Ten both years as well as in 1952. In his final year, he finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy voting, and first among all linemen.

Before entering the pro coaching ranks under Hank Stram, he served as a pro scout in 1964 and 1965.

Tom and his wife, Valerie, have three daughters, Lisa (27), Karen (24) and Krista (20).

DON BROWN
Flexibility and Strength

Don Brown, beginning his sixth year as flexibility and strength coach, is responsible for the Big Red's season and offseason conditioning programs. He joined the club in 1978 and since then has improved the team's program through new techniques and equipment.

He is the third successive person from Butler, Pennsylvania to serve as strength and conditioning coach. Don studied under one of the pioneers in the field, Paul Uram, who worked for years in the same capacity with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Before joining the Cardinals, Brown was an assistant coach at Wake Forest while attending graduate school at his alma mater. While an undergraduate, he played outside linebacker and was voted the team's most valuable player in his senior season of 1972.

As well as holding a B.S. degree in Mathematics and a M.A. in Counseling, Brown also holds a master's degree in Business Administration.

He and his wife, Terri, have a son, Casey.

RUDY FELDMAN
Linebackers

Rudy Feldman is in his seventh year with the Cardinals after coaching the defensive line for the first four seasons. He was switched to linebacker coach in 1982, his first time in the NFL in that capacity.

Feldman joined the Big Red in 1978 after leaving the San Diego Chargers where he was the defensive line coach for three years (1974-76) and in charge of the offensive line in 1977. He was brought to St. Louis by Bud Wilkinson, with whom he coached at the University of Oklahoma for five years (1958-62).

His coaching career began as an assistant at Iowa State in 1957. In 1963, he joined Colorado as the top assistant and remained there until 1968 when he became the head coach at New Mexico. He was there until he entered the NFL with San Diego in 1973.

From 1950 through 1953, Feldman played offensive guard for UCLA. In his last season he was captain of the team which finished 8-1 and played Michigan State in the 1954 Rose Bowl.

Rudy was born in San Francisco on May 18, 1932. He and his wife, Joanne, have two sons, Kirk and Kent and one daughter, Lisa.

DICK JAMIESON
Offensive Backfield

Now in his fifth year with the Cardinals, Dick Jamieson has been at the helm of the Big Red running backs since February of 1980.

After retiring from professional football in 1965, Dick compiled a six-year record of 40-19-1 at Peoria Central High School in Illinois. He was named offensive coordinator at the University of Missouri in 1977 and held the position for five years before being named head coach at Indiana State, turning a 3-8 team into an 8-3 contender.

Prior to his coaching career, Jamieson led the nation's small colleges in total offense as a standout quarterback at Bradley. His diverse athletic skills then allowed him to sign a pro baseball contract with the Pittsburgh Pirates before returning to football in 1959 as a back-up to the legendary John Unitas in Baltimore. He joined the New York Titans of the AFL in 1960, but was forced to temporarily retire with a back injury and returned to Bradley as a coach from 1962-64.

In 1965, Jamieson made a comeback to pro football and played as a back-up to yet another football legend, George Blanda with the Houston Oilers, before retiring in 1966.

A native of Peoria, he and his wife, Rosalie, reside in St. Louis and have a daughter, Judi, and two sons, Jeff and Tim.

TOM LOVAT
Offensive Line

Tom Lovat is entering his 24th year of coaching, five of which have been spent in the NFL, 4 of these were at St. Louis. In 1980 he began his pro coaching career as the assistant line coach with the Green Bay Packers where he worked with former offensive tackle and present scout of the Cardinals, Ernie McMillan.

One year later he was quickly hired by Jim Hanifan with whom he once coached with at Utah in 1967.

Tom took his first coaching job in 1967 at Utah, from 1968 through 1970 he served on the staff at Idaho State. In 1971 Lovat was a defensive coach for Saskatchewan of the Canadian Football League. In 1972 he returned to Utah as a defensive coach.Two years later he was named head coach, he held this position 3 seasons before going to Stanford. From Stanford University, Tom joined the Packers, where he was the offensive line coach from 1977 through 1979.

Lovat was born in Bingham, Utah. He and his wife, Lyn, have three children, Johna (20), Mathew (17) and Mark (14).

LEON McLAUGHLIN

Special Assistant to the Head Coach

Leon McLaughlin joined the Cardinals in 1978, bringing with him 22 years of coaching experience, 12 of these at the professional level. His job is to scout the Cardinal opponents, their tendencies and personnel, and also to break down all the data via computer and game film for use in the Big Red's game plan.

Leon's coaching career began in 1956 as an assistant at Washington State. He coached high school football in 1957 and 1958 before going to Stanford for seven years (1959-1965). After his stay at Stanford, Leon began his professional background with Pittsburgh in 1966. After staying with the Steelers for 3 years, he was named head coach at San Fernando State University in 1969. He remained there through 1971 before becoming an assistant with the team he once played for, the Los Angeles Rams.

In 1973 he joined the Detroit staff as the coach of the offensive line. Leon then moved on to join Bart Starr's staff at Green Bay in 1975 for two years before moving on to New England in 1977.

McLaughlin and his wife, Sue, have 3 sons and a daughter.

EMMITT THOMAS

Receivers

Emmitt Thomas joined the Cardinal staff in 1981 after his 3 year stay at Central

Missouri State University where he was the defensive backfield coach. Emmitt went to Central Missouri State after his 13 outstanding seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs.

Thomas began his pro career as a free agent wide receiver in 1966 out of Bishop College. Tom Bettis, the Big Red defensive coordinator, was then the defensive backfield coach of the Chiefs. He took Emmitt and converted him to a cornerback. At Kansas City Thomas set the all-time Kansas City interception record with 58. He led the Chiefs in thefts five times and was one of only seven players in NFL history to lead the entire league in interceptions twice in his career (1969-1974).

Emmitt played in four Pro Bowls and two Super Bowls with Kansas City, intercepting a pass in the Chiefs' victory over Minnesota in Super Bowl IV.

Thomas has two children, Derek and Debra and is a Creve Coeur resident.

GEORGE BOONE
Director of Player Personnel

George Boone, the man in charge of the Cardinals scouting and drafting operations, owns perhaps the most successful record in the league in recent years. He was hired in 1968 as the assistant player personnel director and the head of a six-man staff in charge of the Big Red's scouting department.

As well as coordinating and overseeing the club's scouting procedures, he also manages their participation with the United Scouting Combine, a personnel organization utilized by numerous NFL teams in pooling scouting reports.

Boone began his NFL personnel career in 1966 as a scout with the Central-Eastern Professional Organization (CEPO), a scouting combine also used by NFL teams.

A native of Louisville, Kentucky, George, 44, is an alumnus of the University of Kentucky. At Kentucky, he was a three-year starter at offensive and defensive tackle from 1957-1959.

After graduation, he served as assistant football coach from 1960 to 1965. He has a Bachelor's and Master's degree in Education from Kentucky.

George and his wife, Dedee, have four daughters and a son.

BO BOLINGER
Scout

Having been with the Big Red since 1971 as one of its first full-time player personnel professionals, Bo Bolinger is one of the most experienced Cardinal scouts.

Before joining the club, he coached for eleven years on the collegiate level and spent two seasons as the offensive line coach for the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League.

Bolinger began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Oklahoma, his alma mater, in 1955. After coaching for a while at the high school level, he was the offensive and defensive line coach at Denver University from 1958 to 1960. The next two years (1961-62) he was the defensive coordinator at Tulsa. He was offensive and defensive coordinator at New Mexico (1963-67) and defensive coordinator at Utah State (1968) before entering the Canadian Football League.

While a player at Oklahoma, Bolinger was an All-American in 1955 and two-time all-conference guard.

Bo, 51, and his wife, Barbara, live in Tempe, Arizona.

MATT LAIR
Scout

This season Matt Lair will be in his eleventh year as a scout for the Cardinals. With almost 30 years of football coaching and scouting experience, he joined the club in 1974 after working at CEPO from 1968 to 1973. Before that he spent 15 years as an assistant coach in the college ranks with Kentucky, Texas A&M, and Texas Tech.

As an undergraduate at Kentucky from 1941 to 1942 and again in 1946 and 1947, he played linebacker and guard.

Lair, 58, was born in Paris, Kentucky. He and his wife, Helen, now live in Danville, Kentucky.

ACE PARKER
Scout

Clarence "Ace" Parker joined the Cardinals scouting department in 1976, four years after being elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He played in both the NFL and the National Baseball League and was an all-purpose offensive and defensive back with the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1937-41, the Boston Yanks in 1945 and the New York Yankees of the All-American Football Conference in 1946. He has been called one of the last great triple-threat stars in professional football.

In 1939, as a member of the Brooklyn Dodgers, Ace played in the first televised professional football game ever, on October 22 vs Philadelphia. He threw a touchdown pass in the 23-14 victory.

A member of five Halls of Fame, including Duke University, North Carolina, Virginia, and the National Collegiate Athletic Association Hall of Fame, he had been an All-American tailback at Duke in 1936 and was the Brooklyn Dodgers' first draft choice in 1937. However, Parker did not report to Brooklyn until midway into the football season because he had signed a contract with the Philadelphia Athletics. After earning all NFL honors in his first full season in 1938, he decided to stay in football and turned down a baseball contract with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

In 1940, before a service call interrupted his career in 1941, he was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player. He returned for the 1945 and 1946 seasons to complete career totals of 498 rushing yards and 14 TDs on 148 attempts and 335 completions in 718 passing attempts for 4701 yards and 30 TDs.

Parker, 69, and his wife Thelma live in his hometown, Portsmouth, Virginia.

HARRY GILMER
Scout

The 1983 season was the first in nearly three decades that Harry Gilmer was not in the NFL coaching ranks.

During his years as a coach, he did a great deal of scouting, both in his early days when it was a major part of the coaches duties, as well as later in his career when the Cardinal scouting department had not fully developed.

Gilmer began his coaching and scouting career with Pittsburgh in 1957. He joined the Minnesota Vikings for four years in 1961 before accepting the head coach position in 1965 at Detroit. He came to the Cardinals in 1967 for the first of his two tenures as the Big Red quarterback coach. In 1970 he took the same position in Atlanta, only to return to the Big Red in 1975.

Washington's first choice in the 1948 draft, Harry had a brilliant career at Alabama, earning All-American honors as a star quarterback. Harry retired in 1956 after being named All-Pro in both 1950 and 1952 with the Redskins.

He and his wife, Katherine, have a son, three daughters, and four grandchildren and reside in O'Fallon, Missouri.

STAN WEST
Scout

Stan West is entering the end of his second decade as a Football Cardinals' scout - the senior member of the department.

In 1949, while at the University of Oklahoma, West was an All-American lineman and was the 1950 Los Angeles Rams' first draft pick. During his second year with the Rams he was named to the Pro Bowl and was a member of the 1951 Rams team which beat Cleveland for the NFL championship.

After five seasons with the Rams he played for the New York Giants in 1955 and the Chicago Cardinals from 1956-57. He was then an assistant coach with Minnesota for three years, and after one year's absence from football, returned in 1965 to join the Cardinal staff.

He and his wife, Mary Frances, reside in Norman, Oklahoma and have two sons, Tom and Ted.

ERNIE McMILLAN
Scout

Ernie McMillan, a two-time All-Pro and four-time Pro Bowl selection, is entering his first year as a scout for the Big Red. McMillan played 14 years with the Cardinals and finished up his career as a player with the Green Bay Packers in 1975. In 1977 he joined the Packers as an assistant coach until returning to St. Louis last year.

The Cardinals 13th-round draft choice in 1961 played in 178 games, including 162 straight, while becoming one of the premier tackles in the game. He was named to the All-Pro team in 1970 and 1971 and played in the Pro Bowl following the 1965, '67, '69, and '71 seasons.

A native of Chicago Heights, Ernie and his wife, Gail, and daughter, Amber, reside in St. Louis.

JOHN OMOHUNDRO
Head Trainer

John begins his 17th season with the Cardinals and 14th as the Head Trainer for the club.

Having earned his Bachelor's Degree from Wyoming, John began his career as head trainer at the College of Southern Utah in 1961. He joined Wyoming's staff as a student assistant in 1962 and left as a graduate assistant in 1967. Later that year, he joined the Cardinals as an assistant trainer before being elevated to the head trainer's position in 1970.

A native of Salt Lake City, Utah, John received a special service award from the St. Louis Quarterback Club in 1978 as a tribute to his dedication to the team. He and his wife, Martha, reside in Manchester, Mo. with their two sons, Jimmy (8) and Johnny (10), and their daughter, Neeley (3).

JIM SHEARER
Assistant Trainer

Now in his 11th year with the Cardinals, Shearer joined the club after a brief stay in Gillette, Wyoming as the city's assistant recreation director and head trainer for Gillette High School.

Awarded a degree in Physical Education from Wyoming in 1972, Shearer returned to his alma mater as a graduate assistant from 1973-74 and joined the Cardinals later in 1974.

A native of Worland, Wyoming, Jim and his wife, Nelma, reside in Glendale, Mo. with their daughter, Sarah (3) and son Christopher (7).

ED FLEMING
Assistant Trainer

Ed joined the staff at the start of the 1982 season after working for the Cardinals part-time at training camp and mini-camp for the past four seasons.

Fleming earned a degree in physical education from the University of Missouri-St. Louis and taught at Hazelwood East High School before coming to the Cardinals.

A native of St. Louis, Ed and his wife, Kathy, reside in Florissant with their son Daniel and daughter Laurie.

BILL SIMMONS
Equipment Manager

Bill has become a fixture in the Cardinals' organization, now in his 19th year after joining the club in 1966.

A veteran of both World War I and the Korean War, Bill earned his Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Northeast Missouri State University between stints in the service. Prior to his days with the Cardinals, Bill taught at Ferguson High School in St. Louis where he coached and officiated high school sports for 18 years.

Born in Kansas City, Mo., Bill and his wife, Katie, reside in Florissant, Mo., and have five children and six grandchildren. Their eldest son, Dan, is following in his father's footsteps, now in his 12th year as equipment manager for the New Orleans Saints.

MARK AHLEMEIER
Assistant Equipment Manager

Mark begins his fourth year with the Cardinals after coming on board in 1981. He attended Ritenour High School in St. Louis and went on to study at Florissant Valley Community College.

A native of St. Charles, Mo., Mark is single and resides in the St. Louis suburb of Woodson Terrace.

DAVE AHRENS

Linebacker Wisconsin 4th Year
Ht: 6-3 Wt: 230 Born: 12/5/58
Acquisition: Sixth round choice 1981

PRO: Throughout his career, Dave Ahrens has established himself by giving a solid effort every time he steps on the field. Stretching back to his rookie year in 1981, Dave had a streak of 25 consecutive starts at middle linebacker end in game six of 1983, but his contributions as the No. 1 reserve continued throughout the season. Despite starting only the final ten games of the 1981 season, he finished second on the team in tackles and scored his first TD with a 14 yard interception return against Baltimore (11/22). In 1982, he started all nine games at MLB and again finished as the team's second-leading tackler, and was named Special Teams Player of the Game against the New York Giants (12/26). GAMES: 1981: 16(10), 1982: 9(9), 1983: 16(5) TOTALS: 41(24).

COLLEGE: Ahrens established school season and career records for tackles behind the line of scrimmage while starting the first 21 games of his collegiate career. He was twice named Sports Illustrated Defensive Player of the Week while at Wisconsin, was named to the Freshman All-American team in 1977 by Football News, and earned second-team All-Big Ten honors and team MVP in 1980.

PERSONAL: Dave attended Oregon High School in Oregon, Wisconsin. He and his wife, Karen, have a son, David Iver (2/4/82) and reside in Ballwin, Missouri.

KURT ALLERMAN

Linebacker Penn State 8th Year
Ht: 6-2 Wt: 232 Born: 8/30/55
Acquisition: Waivers - Green Bay, 9/8/82

PRO: Sharing the middle linebacker spot with Ahrens and E.J. Junior last year, Kurt started eight of the final 11 games of the 1983 season and ran up impressive performances week after week, including a team high 19 tackles vs Washington (10/9), which included 13 solo efforts. The Cardinal's third round draft choice in 1977, Allerman excelled on special teams and earned a starting spot for nine games the following year. He finished second on the team in tackles in 1979 starting the final 11 games of the season, and was given a game ball in his first start vs Houston (10/7). 1980 saw Allerman sign as a free agent with the Green Bay Packers and finish second on the team in tackles, and the Cardinals claimed him from the waiver list prior to the 1982 season. OTTIS ANDERSON

Running Back Miami 6th Year
Ht: 6-2 Wt: 220 Born: 1/19/57
Acquisition: First-round draft choice 1979

PRO: After just five years in the league, Ottis has established himself as one of the most powerful, versatile runners in the NFL. His 6,190 career yards places him in the No. 19 spot of the NFL's Leading Lifetime Rushers, and with another good season could jump into the No. 11 spot ahead of Leroy Kelly's 7,274 yards. A Pro Bowl selection in 1979 and 1980, Anderson hit the 100-yard mark in five of the final eight games of the 1983 season. "O.J. had an excellent year again last season," comments head coach Jim Hanifan, "and with the development of our offensive line, he'll be on his way to regaining All-Pro status this year." Ottis is the Cardinals' all-time single season and career leader in rushing yards, attempts, and 100 yard games, and has a total of 29 games over the century mark in rushing. Anderson exploded into the NFL in 1979 when he rushed for 193 yards in 21 attempts in an electrifying pro debut vs Dallas (9/2), and became the first rookie running back to average 100 yards rushing per game during the course of a season, as he went on to become the NFL Rookie of the Year and All-Pro. He also was the first back to rush for more than 100 yards twice in one season against Dallas, and also the first to gain 100 yards three times in a career against the Cowboys. 1980 saw him earn All-Pro honors for the second consecutive year. In the second half of the 1981 season, he was the leading rusher in that span with an average of 102 yards per game for a total of 820 in the final eight games, and established a club record for pass receptions by a running back with 51, a mark he eclipsed in 1983 with 54 catches. GAMES: 1979: 16(16), 1980: 16(16), 1981: 16(16), 1982: 8(8), 1983: 15(15), TOTALS: 71(71)

COLLEGE: Ottis broke Chuck Foreman's career rushing records at the University of Miami, becoming the first player to rush for more than 1,000 yards in the school's history his senior year with 1,266 yards. He was named The Sporting News and American Football Coaches First Team All-American and honorable mention All-American by both AP and UPI.

PERSONAL: A native of West Palm Beach Florida, Ottis attended Forest Hill High School there and graduated from Miami with a degree in Physical Education. He has been active with the United Way and the campaign to combat Multiple Sclerosis. Ottis resides in Creve Coeur, Missouri.

DAN AUDICK

Tackle/Gaurd Hawaii 7th Year

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 253 Born: 11/15/54

Acquisition: Trade-San Francisco 4/21/83

PRO: A versatile offensive lineman is welcome at any team's doorstep, and Dan has proven his worth in St. Louis as well as with other teams. At either guard or tackle, he gets the job done and is a welcome sight on the bench if one of the starters goes down. Audick signed with the Cardinals as a free agent in 1977 and played in two games before joining San Diego in 1978. With Hanifan as his offensive line coach, he played in 31 regular season and two playoff contests with the Chargers, then was traded to San Francisco and was the starting left tackle for all 19 games of San Francisco's Super Bowl Championship season in 1981. GAMES: 1977: 2(0), *1978: 1(0), *1979: 16(4), *1980: 15(11), 1981: 16(16),  1982: 7(0), 1983: 12(1), TOTALS: 69(32) CARDINALS TOTAL: 14(1)

* San Diego

San Francisco

COLLEGE: Dan was a three-year starter at Hawaii, captain his senior year, and named the team's Outstanding Offensive Lineman in 1976.

PERSONAL: One of ten children of a military father, Dan has lived in several spots around the world and attended Roy J. Wasson High in Colorado Springs, Colorado. He earned his degree in Business from Hawaii in 1977 and is currently working toward a Master's degree in Business Administration at San Diego State University. Dan resides in San Diego, California.

Additional Statistics: recovered two fumbles 1981.

AL BAKER

Defensive End Colorado State 2nd Year
Ht: 6-6 Wt: 280 Born: 12/9/56
Acquisition: Trade with Detroit, 7/19/83

PRO: When "Bubba" Baker came to St. Louis last year in a trade with Detroit, not only did he play in a new city, with a new team, under a new coaching staff, but he played a new position as well. And all he did was have his finest season in four years and lead the defensive line in tackles. With Curtis Greer on the right side, Baker played left defensive end for the first time and became an integral part of a young defense that led the NFL in sacks in 1983. Perhaps his finest hour came against the L.A. Raiders when he recorded two QB sacks, came up with an interception, and forced a fumble that Elois Grooms picked up for a TD in the Cardinals' comeback win. Baker opened his career with an incredible 23 sacks in his 1979 rookie season at Detroit, earning Defensive Rookie of the Year and Pro Bowl honors. He appeared in the Pro Bowl in 1980 and '81 as well. In his 83-game NFL career, he has a total of 89 QB sacks, including a five-sack performance his rookie season vs Tampa Bay. GAMES: 1978: 16(16) , 1979: 16(16), 1980: 15(15), 1981: 11(11), 1982: 9(8), 1983: 16(16), TOTALS: 83(82)

COLLEGE: An All-Western Athletic Conference selection in both 1977 and '78, Al totalled 20 sacks in his senior year, and was a standout on the Colorado State basketball squad.

PERSONAL: Given the nickname "Bubba" in college, Al grew up in Newark, New Jersey and attended Weequahic High. He and his wife, Sabrina, live in Chesterfield, Missouri.

CHARLIE BAKER

Linebacker New Mexico 5th Year
Ht: 6-2 Wt: 234 Born: 9/26/57
Acquisition: Third round choice 1980 (3B)

PRO: Playing strongside linebacker is certainly tough in the NFL these days, but Charlie Baker has held up his end and been a fixture in the Cardinal defense, starting every game the past two seasons. Proving his worth on special teams and a capable back-up as a rookie, Charlie earned eight starts in 1981 and came through with 5 QB sacks, tops among linebackers that year. Since the 1982 opener, he's shown his wares as a consistent starter and has proven very coachable in a complex position. Baker led the team in tackles in 1982, was second among linebackers in 1983, and could well be among the leaders again in 1984. GAMES: 1980: 16(1), 1981: 14(8), 1982: 9(9), 1983: 16(16) TOTALS: 55(34).

COLLEGE: An Honorable Mention All-American, Baker was named First Team All-Western Athletic Conference and AP All-Strength Team his senior year. His junior season in 1978, Charlie led his team in QB sacks with 12 and forced seven opponent fumbles.

PERSONAL: In his hometown of Odessa, Texas, Baker earned All-State honors at Ector High School. He and his wife, Renea, reside in St. Louis with their new-born daughter.

STEVE BIRD

Wide Receiver East Kentucky 2nd Yr.
Ht: 5-11 Wt: 171 Born: 10/20/60
Acquisition: Fifth round choice 1983

PRO: Bird played in fourteen games in his rookie season as a member of the special teams. His 21.6 average on kick-off returns tied for the club's best with Stump Mitchell. In addition to also returning punts, he was a back-up wide receiver. GAMES: 1983: 14(0).

COLLEGE: He played on two NCAA Division I-AA championship teams in 1979 and 1982 at EKU. In addition, Bird was twice named first team Ohio Valley Conference in 1981 and 1982 and was voted Ohio Valley Conference Offensive Player of the Year in 1982. Bird was named to the Kodak All-American team in 1982 and has the distinction of playing in the Division I-AA finals in his four years at EKU.

PERSONAL: His dad played in the NBA with the NY Knicks and his uncle was a defensive back with Oakland (1967-71). Bird was an All-State football player in high school playing five positions. He is single and currently resides in Corbin, Kentucky.

CARL BIRDSONG

Punter S.W. Oklahoma State 4th Year
Ht: 6-0 Wt: 192 Born: 1/1/59
Acquisition: Waivers from Buffalo, 7/29/81

PRO: In just three years, Carl Birdsong has gone from a free agent cast-off by Buffalo to the NFC Pro Bowl punter in 1983. A major reason for the Cardinals' success on special teams, Carl has been among the league leaders in the all-important "net punting average" since his rookie season.

"Carl always establishes a high level of performance for himself," states head coach Jim Hanifan, "and his selection to the Pro Bowl last year is an indication of just what he can do. He's such an unselfish, team-oriented individual and should be one of the premier punters in the league for a long time."

Currently No. 2 in the Cardinal record books with 208 career punts, Carl needs 49 to surpass Chuck Latourette to become the all-time leader in Big Red history in that department. Of his 85 punts last year, only 47 were returned for an average of just 6.5 yards, and a long return of only 19 yards, serving notice of his consistency with kick coverage units.

A UPI NFL All-Rookie selection in 1981, Birdsong came back again in 1982 to lead the NFC with a 43.8 yard average, and his 1983 stats of a 41.5 gross and 36.3 net average finally earned him a spot in the Pro Bowl. Going into his fourth pro season, Carl has not had a punt blocked yet. GAMES: 1981: 16, 1982: 9, 1983: 16, TOTALS: 41.

COLLEGE: A second team All-American in 1980, Birdsong was an all-conference punter in both his junior and senior years at Southwest Oklahoma State, and served as the back-up quarterback and the place-kicker as well.

PERSONAL: Carl passed the registry exam in the spring of 1984 and is now a Registered Pharmacist, working during the off season in Amarillo, Texas. He attended Amarillo High School and resides there with his wife, Shylan.

JOE BOSTIC

Guard Clemson 6th Year
Ht: 6-3 Wt: 268 Born 4/20/57
Acquisition: Third round choice 1979

PRO: With four years of soild line play behind him, Joe Bostic has become a fixture on a young offensive line that has improved each year. Settling in as the right guard after playing on the left side and even seeing action as a tackle in previous years, Bostic was rated the best lineman by head coach Jim Hanifan in 1982 and had another steady season last year. When Dan Dierdorf went down with a knee injury in 1979, Joe stepped in and started 14 games at right tackle his rookie year, then moved to guard the following season. 1981 was his first full season at guard and he was awarded a game ball in 1982 for an outstanding performance vs. Atlanta (11/28). GAMES: 1979: 16(14), 1980: 16(15), 1981: 14(14), 1982: 8(8), 1983: 14(14), TOTALS 68(65).

COLLEGE: Joe was an All-American guard at Clemson and an All-ACC choice both his junior year and senior years, earning the Jacobs Trophy as the top blocker in the ACC. He played in the Tigers' 1979 Gator Bowl win over Ohio State in Woody Hayes' last game with the Buckeyes, and also was a starter in the 1979 Hula Bowl.

PERSONAL: Bostic was a state wrestling champion at Benjamin Smith High in Greensboro, North Carolina, and is the older brother of Washington Redskin center Jeff Bostic. He recently opened a restaurant, Bostic's Loft, just outside of St. Louis. Joe and his wife, Ann, expect their first child later this year and reside in St. Louis.

RANDY CLARK

Center Northern Illinois 5th Year
Ht: 6-3 Wt: 254 Born 7/27/57
Acquisition: Free Agent-10/27/80

PRO: Randy paid his dues on special teams the first two seasons and came through with a superb effort last year at center, his first as a starter. "Randy showed his wares last year, and we're counting on him to be a factor in the play of our offensive line again in 1984," comments coach Jim Hanifan. A versatile lineman, Randy saw his first action at guard as a rookie in 1980 and has been the center on punts, field goals, and extra point attempts for the past three seasons. One of the strongest linemen with the Cardinals, Randy's consistency in the long snap from punt formation is a main factor in Carl Birdsong's streak of never having a punt blocked in his three-year career. GAMES: 1980: 8(0), 1981: 16(0), 1982: 9(0), 1983: 14(13), TOTALS 47(13).

COLLEGE: A two-time All Mid-American Conference selection while at Northern Illinois, Randy was a three-year starter at both center and tackle.

PERSONAL: Born in Chicago, Illinois, Randy attended Prospect High School in Mt. Prospect, Illinois and has a degree in Marketing from Northern Illinois. He resides in Manchester, Missouri.

ADDITIONAL STATISTICS: 2 KO returns for 14 yards 1980.

RAMSEY DARDAR

Def. Tackle Louisiana State 1st Year
Ht: 6-2 Wt: 264 Born 9/3/59
Acquisition: Third round choice 1983

PRO: Ramsey Dardar was placed on the injured reserve list with a knee injury prior to the 1983 regular season. He will have his work cut out for him if he is to see much playing time on the NFL top quarterback sacking unit from last year and number three overall defense in NFC.

COLLEGE: Dardar was a tough competitor at nose tackle at Louisiana State, and was first team All-Southeast Conference and honorable mention All-American. He registered 18 career sacks as a three year starter at LSU under Coach Jerry Stovall, the former Big Red safety.

PERSONAL: Ramsey was the Louisiana state high school shot put champion with a toss of 59 feet. He bench presses 400 pounds and has a 32" vertical leap. He is single and resides in Cecilia, Louisiana.

PAUL DAVIS

Linebacker North Carolina 2nd Year
Ht: 6-3 Wt: 210 Born 7/10/58
Acquisition: Free agent-10/9/83

PRO: Paul joined the Cardinals for the last portion of the '83 season and played very well on special teams after being released by Atlanta prior to the 1983 season. Paul signed with Oakland in 1981 as a free agent, but was released in training camp before he was picked up by Atlanta. He played in 24 of 25 games with the Falcons and saw most of his playing time on special teams since he joined them in 1981. GAMES: *1981: 15(0), *1982: 9(1), 1983: 6(0) TOTAL: 30(1) CARDINALS TOTAL: 6(0) *Atlanta

COLLEGE: A noseguard while at North Carolina, Paul had 79 tackles his senior season and was largely instrumental in a 9-3 upset of Texas Tech that year.

PERSONAL: Paul graduated from Appalachia High in Virginia and was an All-Conference linebacker and running back. He earned a degree in Industrial Relations from UNC in 1983. He is single and resides in Upper Saddle River, New Jersey.

MARK DUDA

Defensive Tackle Maryland 2nd Year
Ht: 6-3 Wt: 263 Born: 2/4/61
Acquisition: Fourth round choice 1983(4A)

PRO: When the players and coaching staff met for the first team meal at the 1984 minicamp, heads turned and voices stirred when Mark Duda walked into the room. Last year's tough kid from Maryland had used the off-season to shed some weight, add some muscles, and was ready to start the year with perhaps the most improved physique on the team. "He's a big, strong kid from Wilkes Barre, Pennsylvania," says assistant head coach/defense Floyd Peters, "He did a great job and he's got those Alex Karras type feet - he can step over piles of bodies and not fall down. It's a pleasure to work with him and he's come along great." Mark stepped into the starting lineup six times in 1983 and set up a Cardinal interception that led to the go-ahead score vs Philadelphia (9/25). GAMES: 1983: 14(6).

COLLEGE: A First Team All-ACC and Honorable Mention All-American, Mark played in the East-West Shrine game and set a Maryland record with 13 QB sacks in 1982.

PERSONAL: Born in Wilkes Barre, Pennsylvania, Mark attended Plymouth High and was a Dean's List student at Maryland. He resides in Plymouth, Pennsylvania.

EARL FERRELL

Running Back E. Tenn. State 3rd Yr.
Ht: 6-0 Wt: 215 Born: 3/27/58
Acquisition: Fifth round choice 1982(5B)

PRO: Seeing special teams duty the majority of his two-year career, Earl carried the ball just seven times last year, but had a 7.6 yard average. He has the size, speed and durability to develop into a fine player, and the 1984 season may see him realize his potential with increased playing time. Last year Earl was the deep man along with Stump Mitchell on kickoff returns, and often made the initial hit on kick coverage units. A fine physical specimen, Ferrell will do whatever is asked of him to contribute to the team. GAMES: 1982: 9(0), 1983: 16(0) TOTALS: 25(0).

COLLEGE: A three-year starter after suffering a knee injury his freshman year, Earl led his college team in rushing each of the next three seasons, finishing with a 5.3 average and 21 touchdowns.

PERSONAL: Earl was an outstanding football player and wrestler at Halifax County High in South Boston, Virginia and has a degree in Physical Education from East Tennessee State. He is single and resides in St. Louis.

DAVID GALLOWAY

Defensive Tackle Florida 3rd Year
Ht: 6-3 Wt: 277 Born: 2/16/59
Acquisition: Second round choice 1982

PRO: After a frustrating rookie year when he dislocated an elbow, "G-way" opened a few eyes last year, rolling up 12 sacks from his defensive tackle spot, an amazing total for an interior defensive lineman. The highlight of his performance and one of the numerous bright spots in the Cardinals late-season run at the playoffs in 1983 occurred when, with just a three point lead late in the game, he nailed Dave Krieg in the end zone for a safety vs Seattle (11/13). David played in the final five games his rookie year and came through with two QB sacks in the finale vs Washington (1/2). GAMES: 1982: 5(0), 1983: 16(13), TOTALS: 21(13)

COLLEGE: An All-American defensive end and finalist for the 1981 Lombardi Trophy, Galloway played in the 1982 Hula Bowl and was voted the Outstanding Defensive Player in the 1980 Tangerine Bowl.

PERSONAL: One of Florida's top prep athletes at Brandon High as a three-sport star, David was raised by his older sister, Shelly, after his father died when he was two and his mother passed away when he was nine years old. David and his wife, Josie, reside in St. Louis with their son, David Jr. (11/9/83).

ROY GREEN

Wide Receiver Henderson St. 6th Year
Ht: 6-0 Wt: 195 Born: 6/30/57
Acquisition: Fourth round choice 1979

PRO: Roy Green was a defensive back the receivers couldn't shake, then a receiver whom defenders couldn't cover. And the 1983 season saw this superb athlete blossom into the limelight of the Pro Bowl as the Cardinals' all-time record holder for receptions (78) and yards receiving (1,227) in a single season. "Last year at this time I stated that Roy Green has yet to realize his potential," says head coach Jim Hanifan. "Well, you saw it all unfold in 1983, and there's no doubt in my mind he can come back for an even better performance in 1984." In only his first full season as a wide receiver, "Jet Stream" caught five or more passes 10 times last year, including four TD catches vs Seattle (11/13). Roy caught a 26-yard game-winner with only 29 seconds remaining vs Philadelphia (9/25) and now has a streak of 40 consecutive games with at least one reception. In 1982, he caught the game-winning and playoff-clinching TD on an 8-yard reception with 27 seconds showing on the clock vs the New York Giants (12/26), and came through with 10 catches for 170 yards vs Dallas (9/19) for a career best. Roy made history in 1981 vs the Redskins (9/20) when he became the first player to catch a TD pass and intercept a pass in the same game since Eddie Sutton of Washington did it (12/8/57). In that game, he was on the field for a total of 99 plays (offense, defense, four special teams). A superior special teams performer, Roy ran 44 yards on a fake punt for a TD later that season vs New Orleans (12/6), and in 1980 returned a punt 57 yards for the winning points vs Dallas (12/7). Green electrified the football world his rookie year in 1979 with a 106-yard kickoff return for a TD vs Dallas (10/21), tying an NFL record.

Roy was named to numerous All-Pro teams for his outstanding '83 season, and was honored by the NFL Alumni as their choice for Wide Receiver of the Year in 1983. GAMES: 1979: 16(0), 1980: 15(6), 1981: 16(2), 1982: 9(9), 1983: 16(15) TOTALS: 72(32).

COLLEGE: A versatile NAIA All-American in 1978 at Henderson State in Arkansas, Roy played defensive back and returned kickoffs and punts, and in fact scored TD's in all three categories (26-yard interception, 74-yard punt return, and 90-yard kickoff return) during his college career.

PERSONAL: Roy was a three-sport letterman in his hometown of Magnolia, Arkansas at Magnolia High School, and was inducted into the Arkansas Hall of Fame in 1984. He and his wife, Sharon, reside in Chesterfield, Missouri with their daughter, Myosha (10/23/80).

CURTIS GREER

Defensive End Michigan 5th Year
Ht: 6-4 Wt: 258 Born: 11/10/57
Acquisition: First round choice 1980

PRO: With Al Baker on the opposite side, Curtis saw fewer double teams in 1983 and sailed to his finest season yet with 16 sacks to lead the Cardinals as the NFL's leading "sack attack." In St. Louis' 31-7 win over Philadelphia in the season finale (12/18), Curtis chalked up 4½ QB traps, spearheading a Cardinal defense that totalled 11 for minus 74 yards on the afternoon. His consistency and leadership in the defense is indicated by the fact that he has either led or shared the team lead in sacks each of his four years. Curtis recovered two fumbles and recorded 1½ sacks vs New Orleans (9/12) and had two sacks and a fumble recovery vs San Francisco (11/21) to highlight a fine 1982 season in which he made a big play or had a great overall game in all nine contests. In his rookie year in 1981, he suffered a concussion in the season opener and missed the next four games, but came back with a vengeance to record 4½ sacks vs Baltimore (10/26) as the Cardinals tied an NFL record with 12 sacks on the afternoon. GAMES: 1980: 11(2), 1981: 16(12), 1982: 9(9), 1983: 16(16), TOTALS: 52(39).

COLLEGE: Named to 13 post-season All-American teams, Curtis was a finalist for the 1979 Outland and 1980 Lombardi awards, and was a two-year member of the AP All-American Strength team. Curtis played in three Rose Bowls, the 1979 Gator Bowl and 1980 Hula Bowl, and led the Wolverine defensive linemen in tackles as both a junior and senior.

PERSONAL: Curtis was an All-State performer at Cass Tech in Detroit and worked during the summers with disadvantaged youth in the inner city. He has a degree in Speech Communication and is currently employed by Anheuser-Busch as a Special Marketing Representative. His wife, Marsha, graduated from New York University this past spring with a Law degree. He and his wife have twins, Brandon and Danielle (7/23/82) and reside in Chesterfield, Missouri.

JEFF GRIFFIN

Cornerback Utah 4th Year
Ht: 6-0 Wt: 185 Born: 7/19/58
Acquisition: Third round 1981

PRO: Not only will Jeff Griffin have to battle back from a forearm injury that sidelined him for 12 games last year, but now he's up against the incumbent, Lionel Washington, who tied for the second highest interception total in the NFL last year with eight steals. Griffin sustained a fracture of the left forearm in preseason, then was activated for three games but reinjured the arm vs New York Giants (10/24) and placed back on the Injured Reserve List. "We decided the only way for him to come back 100% was for his arm to be completely healed," said head coach Jim Hanifan. "Jeff is a tough individual, and he'll be back for the 1984 season as strong as ever." Jeff solidified the left cornerback spot in 1982 after playing the 1981 season on the right side and proved his worth early his rookie season when, in his first professional start vs Minnesota (10/25), he broke up a game-high seven passes and had eight tackles in the 30-17 Cardinal win. GAMES: 1981: 16(9), 1982: 9(8), 1983: 3(3) TOTALS: 28(20).

COLLEGE: Named to several All-American teams, Jeff returned three interceptions for touchdowns in 1978 and played in the 1981 East-West and Senior Bowl classics. Jeff started every game in his four years at Utah and was rated one of the top one-on-one cornerbacks his senior year.

PERSONAL: At Banning High School in Los Angeles, Jeff's coach was Chris Ferragamo, the brother of Los Angeles Rams quarterback Vince Ferragamo. He has recently opened a sporting goods store in the St. Louis suburb of Clayton, and currently resides in St. Louis, Mo.

ELOIS GROOMS

Defensive End Tenn. Tech 10th Yr.
Ht: 6-4 Wt: 250 Born: 5/20/53
Acquisition: Trade with New Orleans 8/3/82

PRO: Every club has the hard-working, unassuming, "work ethic" player that quietly but effectively gets the job done, and Elois is the Cardinals' contingent. Since coming to the Cardinals in a trade prior to the 1982 season, Grooms has started all 20 games he's played in a Cardinal uniform, and highlighted his career with a 40-yard fumble return for a crucial touchdown last year vs Los Angeles Raiders (12/11). After starting just one game in his first two years in New Orleans, Elois started 78 straight contests for the Saints over five years, and his first four starts in 1984 pushed the streak to 91 before an ankle injury forced him out of game five last year. In his nine-year career, Grooms has recovered nine fumbles. GAMES: *1975: 10(0), *1976: 11(1), *1977: 14(14), *1978: 16(16), *1979: 16(16), *1980: 16(16), *1981: 16(16), 1982: 9(9), 1983: 11(11) TOTALS: 119(99), CARDINALS TOTAL: 20(20). *New Orleans.

COLLEGE: Named to the UPI Small College All-America team for both 1973 and '74, Grooms was also selected to the Ohio Valley Conference First team his junior and senior seasons and was Tennessee Tech's captain and team MVP his final year.

PERSONAL: Elois holds a degree in Physical Education and attended Tomkinsville High in Kentucky. He is active with the American Heart Association as a past honorary chairman and has been involved with the New Orleans Special Olympics. He and his wife, Judy have a daughter, Alison, and reside in Mandeville, Louisiana.

WILLARD HARRELL

Running Back Pacific 10th Year
Ht: 5-8 Wt: 182 Born: 9/16/52
Acquisition: Free Agent 9/12/78

PRO: When you look at the list of statistics Willard Harrell possesses, you wonder how an athlete can be so versatile for so long, particularly going into his tenth year in the NFL. Although he was hampered by injuries in 1983, Harrell has been an integral member of the Cardinals. Willard was on the receiving end of Neil Lomax's first NFL touchdown pass, a 62-yarder in 1981 vs Dallas (9/13), and in 1982 set up the game-winning and playoff-clinching touchdown with a 36-yard reception in the final seconds vs New York Giants (12/26). Harrell came to St. Louis as a free agent after a stellar three-year career with Green Bay. The first play of his career was an 82-yard punt return for a TD in a preseason game, and he went on to lead the Packers in rushing in 1976 with 435 yards. Amazingly, he has completed six of twelve pass attempts from the option play for 144 yards and four touchdowns. GAMES: *1975; 14(14), * 1976: 13(13), *1977: 13(3), 1978: 13(2), 1979: 14(0), 1980: 16(0), 1981: 16(0), 1982: 7(0), 1983: 14(0) TOTALS: 120(32) CARDINALS TOTAL: 80(2). * Green Bay

COLLEGE: Willard led the nation in all-purpose rushing as a junior at the University of the Pacific with an average of 177.7 yards per game and set a school record with 3,224 yards rushing.

PERSONAL: Elected to the Pacific Hall of Fame in 1983, Willard attended Edison High in Stockton, California and recently became a licensed cosmetologist. He resides in Maryland Heights, Missouri.

BOB HARRIS

Linebacker Auburn 2nd Year
Ht: 6-2 Wt: 205 Born: 11/11/60
Acquisition: Eighth round choice 1983

PRO: Bob was perhaps the most interesting story of the 1983 season, and one of the many pleasant surprises in the '83 draft. Having played safety at Auburn, Harris' size and strength caught some extra attention during the '83 mini-camp and he was given a shot at linebacker. "We tried him at OLB just to see how he would react," said head coach Jim Hanifan. "When we saw what he could do, we decided he could indeed do the job, and he had a spectacular year until he was injured." Starting in all eight games he played in, Bob was named to the UPI All-Rookie Team despite missing half the season and led all Cardinal linebackers in both tackles and interceptions before being placed on the injured reserve list with a knee injury. In his first NFL start, Bob chalked up nine tackles and his first interception vs New Orleans in the season opener (9/4) and went on to collect his three thefts in the first five contests. With his knee back to par, Bob should start on the right side again in '84. GAMES: 1983: 8(8).

COLLEGE: An All-Southeast Conference choice in 1982, Bob was invited to the Blue-Gray, Hula, and Senior Bowl games after a fine career at Auburn. With his size and strength, he excelled at both stopping the run and was strong on pass coverage as well. Bob was a four-year starter and voted Most Valuable Senior in '82.

PERSONAL: A native of Everett, Washington, Bob attended Cedar Grove High in Ellenwood, Georgia where he was an All-State performer at safety and tight end. He was granted a degree in Organizational Management from Auburn in 1983 and resides in Stone Mountain, Georgia.

VICTOR HEFLIN

Cornerback Delaware St. 2nd Year
Ht: 6-0 Wt: 180 Born: 7/7/60
Acquisition: Free Agent 9/27/83

PRO: One of the mid-season additions to the Cardinals' roster, Victor played in eight contests and performed well on special team units. He possesses good quickness and has shown that he can indeed contribute in the NFL despite playing at a small college like Delaware St. He was drafted by Denver on the sixth round in 1983 but released prior to the start of the season before coming to St. Louis. GAMES: 1983: 9(0).

COLLEGE: A little All-America selection, Victor was named All-Mideastern Athletic Conference and made the Sheridan Broadcasting Network All-America team in 1982. His career totals included 12 interceptions, eight in his senior year.

PERSONAL: Victor graduated from Wayne High in Dayton, Ohio and was a standout in both track and football, playing tailback, quarterback, and in the defensive backfield as well. Born in Springfield, Mass., Victor is single and resides in Dayton.

E. J. JUNIOR

Linebacker Alabama 4th Year
Ht: 6-3 Wt: 235 Born: 12/8/59
Acquisition: First round choice 1981

PRO: E. J. turned in what could be considered one of the finest all-around performances in the NFL last year, and the timing could not have been better. "What perfect timing it was for E.J. to put together such an outstanding year for us," states head coach Jim Hanifan. "He played in both the middle and on the outside, and shored up our total defensive alignment from the first time he stepped on the field." Starting the last eleven games, Junior led all Cardinal linebackers with 86 tackles, three interceptions, and an eye-opening 7½ QB sacks, all career bests for the Alabama graduate. E.J. settled in at left linebacker in 1982 after playing ILB and OLB his rookie season. In 1981, he was named to several All-Rookie teams and started 13 games, as well as contributing on special teams throughout the season. GAMES: 1981: 16(13), 1982: 9(9), 1983: 12(11) TOTALS: 37(33)

COLLEGE: E.J. was a consensus All-American defensive end for the Crimson Tide, a finalist for the 1981 Lombardi Trophy, and was voted to Alabama's Team of the Decade for the '70's. Junior also was named to the Strength Coaches All-America team and was the Outstanding Defensive Performer in the 1981 Senior Bowl.

PERSONAL: E.J. starred at Maplewood High School in Nashville, Tennessee and graduated from Alabama with a degree in Public Relations. He is involved with the Mathew-Dickey Boys Club in St. Louis and works in the off-season at the Care-Unit, a rehabilitation clinic for teenagers. E.J. has a son, Adam (3/30/84) and is a resident of Florissant, Missouri.

GREG LAFLEUR

Tight End Louisiana St. 4th Yr.
Ht: 6-4 Wt: 236 Born: 9/16/58
Acquisition: Waivers (Philadelphia) 9 1 81

PRO: Greg LaFleur is beginning to prove that he does indeed have the talent to substantiate being a third round choice in 1981. Playing behind starter Doug Marsh, Greg has seen limited playing time but now has put together three solid seasons and will again challenge for the starting assignment in 1984. Though hindered by nagging injuries, LaFleur started five contests and was valuable in short yardage situations in the two tight end formation. The Cardinals claimed him via waivers from Philadelphia (9/1/81), and he went on to have a superb season, being named to the NFL All-Rookie Team by the Pro Football Writers and Pro Football Digest. GAMES: 1981: 16(11), 1982: 9(4), 1983: 16(5). TOTALS: 41(20)

COLLEGE: A two-year starter for LSU, Greg was an outstanding all-around athlete, and in fact started his career as a quarterback. In his senior year, he tied for the team lead in receptions with 18 catches.

PERSONAL: A high school football and track star at Ville Platte High, Greg's football team had only 19 players. He is the coordinator for Goals For Youth, a program for the migrant youth in Louisiana. Greg has a degree in Sociology, and was born and still resides in Ville Platte, Louisiana.

RUSTY LISCH

Quarterback Notre Dame 4th Yr.
Ht: 6-3 Wt: 215 Born: 12/21/56
Acquisition: Fourth round choice 1980

PRO: Rusty saw his first considerable amount of playing time last year since his 1980 rookie season. Because of Neil Lomax's injured shoulder, Rusty saw considerable action vs Kansas City (10/2) and came off the bench to throw a TD pass vs Washington (10/9). "Rusty certainly possesses all the physical qualities to be a fine quarterback," comments head coach Jim Hanifan. "He's our No. 2 signal-caller now, and with that comes additional importance and responsibilities. We hope he can continue to improve and rise to the challenge when called upon." Although he saw no action as QB in 1982, Rusty played in eight games on special teams that year and played defensive back on occasion, including starting at the position in 1981 vs New Orleans (12/20), making nine tackles. GAMES: 1980 2(0), 1981: 9(0), 1982: 8(0), 1983: 2(0), TOTALS: 21(0).

COLLEGE: Rusty started the 1977 National Championship season for Notre Dame as the number one QB, but gave way to Joe Montana. He led the Irish to a 12-10 season-opening win over Michigan in 1979 after redshirting 1978.

PERSONAL: An exceptional athlete, Rusty excells in basketball and is a fine golfer as well. He received his degree from Notre Dame in Architectural Engineering in 1980 and attended Belleville West High School, just across the river from St. Louis. Recently married, Rusty is active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and resides in Belleville, Illinois with his wife, Catherine.

NEIL LOMAX

Quarterback Portland St. 4th Yr.
Ht: 6-3 Wt: 214 Born: 2/17/59
Acquisition: Second round choice 1981

PRO: In just three abbreviated seasons, Neil Lomax has established himself as the all-time Cardinal leader in completion percentage (59.0) and NFL pass rating (92.0) for a single season, feats he accomplished in 1983 despite missing 3½ games with a shoulder injury. "Neil showed last year that he's really come into his own as one of the fine, young players in the NFL," beams head coach Jim Hanifan. "It's a real credit to him for the way he came back from an injury and became a big part of our impressive finish." Lomax sustained the injury in the opener vs New Orleans, but returned to close out the year in grand fashion, throwing at least one TD pass in the last eight games as the Cardinals won six in the span. His 24 TD passes last season are the most by a Cardinal quarterback since 1963 and on three occasions last year he completed over 70% of his attempts. Neil enjoyed one of the finest days of his career when he connected 21 of 27 attempts for 253 yards and four scoring tosses to Roy Green vs Seattle (11/13). Lomax needs just 1,174 yards passing to become third on the Cardinals all-time list for career yardage. Starting the last six games of his 1981 rookie season, Neil engineered wins in four of the contests and was named to four NFL All-Rookie teams and voted team MVP. He started all nine games in 1982 and at one point had a stretch of 100 pass atttempts without an interception to finish with just 6 on the season, fewest in the NFL. He concluded the '82 campaign with 385 yards passing vs Green Bay (1/8) in the first round of the Super Bowl Tournament, the highest total by a QB in his first playoff game. GAMES: 1981: 14(6), 1982: 9(9), 1983: 13(13). TOTALS: 36(28).

COLLEGE: One of the most prolific passers in NCAA history during his career at Portland State, Lomax at one time held 90 Division I-AA records and is the first quarterback to throw more than four TD's in one quarter when he connected for seven vs Delaware State in 1980. That season, he threw for more than 4,000 yards with 37 TD passes. Neil finished seventh in the Heisman Trophy balloting.

PERSONAL: Neil attended Lake Oswego High in Oregon and earned a degree in Communications from Portland State in 1981. He is active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and resides in West Linn, Oregon.

RANDY LOVE

Running Back Houston 6th Yr.
Ht: 6-1 Wt: 205 Born: 9/30/56
Acquisition: Free agent 11/15/79

PRO: One of the reasons the Cardinals' special teams have consistently ranked among the league leaders is the play of Randy Love, both as a kick returner and as one of the first downfield on the pursuit units. Randy was pressed into service for nine games in 1983 at fullback after having carried the ball just four times in his previous four seasons in St. Louis. With the game tied late in the fourth quarter, Randy plunged in from the one-yard line for what proved to be the game-winning points vs Tampa Bay (10/16) last year, and carried the ball a career-high 11 times vs San Francisco (9/18) earlier in the season. Randy was honored as the Cardinals' Special Teams Player of the Year for his performance during the 1980 season. He was originally drafted by New England in the eighth round in 1979 and signed with the Cardinals the following November. GAMES: 1979: 4(0), 1980: 16(0), 1981: 16(0), 1982: 16(0), 1983: 16(1), TOTALS: 68(1).

COLLEGE: Randy had an outstanding career at the University of Houston, capping his senior season with 1,019 yards and nine TD's. He left Houston as the school's No. 9 all-time rusher.

PERSONAL: A native of Wylie, Texas, Randy attended West Garland High and is a cousin of former Washington defensive back Brig Owens. Randy is single and resides in Garland, Texas.

CEDRIC MACK

Cornerback Baylor 3rd Year
Ht: 6-0 Wt: 190 Born: 9/14/60
Acquisition: Second round choice 1983

PRO: From the first time he took the field in a Cardinal uniform, there was no doubt that Cedric Mack was going to become an integeral part of the team. Being a great athlete will take him a long way, and he has the mental outlook suited for a top-notch defensive back. "He's been tested just about every way," comments Assistant Head Coach/Defense Floyd Peters. "He's taken his lumps, but given out some too. He has that ability to play tight, and perhaps get beat or close to it, then come back just as tight on the receiver. One-on one he's superb." Cedric pulled in a deflected pass and sprinted 34 yards for a TD in a preseason game vs Kansas City (8/20), and started the first five games of the regular season. After Jeff Griffin returned for three games, Cedric then became the nickel-back and continued his fine progress. He sealed a win with a late interception vs N.Y. Giants (12/4) and came up with two thefts in the last three games of the season. GAMES: 1983 16(5).

COLLEGE: A three-year starter at Baylor, Cedric was highly-rated in college and broke up a career-high nine passes in 1982. He totalled four interceptions in 1980 and was the school's starting center-fielder on the baseball team, tying a school record with 19 stolen bases in 1981.

PERSONAL: Cedric was born in Bryan, Texas and attended Brazosport High in Freeport. He will complete his work on a degree in Marketing in 1985 from Baylor. Cedric is single and resides in Freeport, Tx.

DOUG MARSH

Tight End Michigan 5th Yr.
Ht: 6-3 Wt: 238 Born: 6/18/58
Acquisition: Second round choice 1980

PRO: After three years, Doug Marsh was the answer at tight end last year with the finest season by a Cardinal at the position in recent years. "Doug came through with his best year by far as a receiver, and continued to give us fine blocking also," states head coach Jim Hanifan. "He gave another dimension on offense that we lacked for a while." In 1981, Doug's season was cut short by a dislocated hip in the fourth game of the season and split time at the position with Greg LaFleur in 1982 after starting all 16 games his rookie season in 1980. Doug's eight scoring grabs in 1983 were more than in his three previous years combined as he and QB Neil Lomax connected at least once in all but one contest. In a crucial game at Tampa Bay (10/16), Doug caught six passes for 81 yards and two TD's at the time giving him five TD catches through seven games. That year he established what still proves to be his single game career high with seven catches for 90 yards and a score vs San Francisco (9/14). GAMES: 1980: 16(16), 1981: 4(3), 1982: 8(8), 1983: 16(16) TOTALS: 44(43).

COLLEGE: An All-American at Michigan, Doug played in the 1977 and '78 Rose Bowls, 1979 Gator Bowl, and 1980 Hula Bowl and led the Wolverines in receiving in 1979. His 33 catches as a senior were more than twice as many as any other member of the team.

PERSONAL: A football and basketball star at Akron Central High in Ohio, Doug was an All-State defensive end. He has worked with disadvantaged youths at Maxey State Boys' Home in Whitmore Lake, Michigan and now resides in St. Louis.

STAFFORD MAYS

Defensive End Washington 5th Yr.
Ht: 6-2 Wt: 250 Born: 3/13/58
Acquisition: Ninth round choice 1980

PRO: Despite being selected as the 225th player in the 1980 draft, Stafford Mays has shown that he can indeed play in the NFL as he enters his fifth season. Mays started only the season finale in '83, but came through with three QB sacks during the course of the year and made his mark on special teams. A pass-rushing specialist, Mays has played in all but one game since joining the Cardinals. He came through with a fine rookie season in 1980, making nine unassisted tackles vs Philadelphia (12/14). GAMES: 1980: 16(0), 1981: 16(0), 1982: 8(0), 1982: 16(1), TOTALS: 56(1).

COLLEGE: The second-leading tackler on the Huskie defense in 1979, Stafford was twice named All-Conference. He was a two-time Junior College All-American at Mt. Hood C.C. in Gresham, Oregon in 1976 and '77 and once recorded 38 tackles in a single game.

PERSONAL: Born in Lawrence, Kansas, Stafford attended Lincoln High in Tacoma, Washington and earned a degree from Washington in Sociology in 1981. He is active in working with the Special Olympics and Shriners' Hospital and resides in Tacoma, Washington.

EDDIE McGILL

Tight End W. Carolina 3rd Yr.
Ht: 6-6 Wt: 240 Born: 7/5/60
Acquisition: Tenth round choice 1982

PRO: Eddie McGill is going into his third season with the Cardinals, but it may seem like his rookie year in a way. He earned a spot on the roster in 1982 but was hampered by a knee injury during training camp and saw duty primarily on special teams. He came back to camp in 1983 and looked ready to challenge for a starting spot, but suffered a broken collarbone in the second regular season game vs Dallas (9/11) after catching a pass from Carl Birdsong for a first down from punt formation, and was on the Injured Reserve List for all but the last game of the season. Eddie has one of the fastest 40 yard dash times on the team and can double as a wide receiver also. GAMES: 1982: 9(0), 1983: 2(0). TOTALS: 11(0).

COLLEGE: A fine all-around talent, McGill set a Western Carolina record for receptions by a tight end with 33 his senior year and was an All-Southern Conference and Honorable Mention All-American in 1982. He was the team's punter in 1981 after going to Western Carolina on a track scholarship. Eddie finished tenth in the national Junior AAU long jump in 1981 and jumped 25 feet in competition.

PERSONAL: A native of Asheville, North Carolina, McGill attended Enka High in North Carolina and was granted a degree in Marketing from Western Carolina in 1982. He resides in Chandler, North Carolina.

STUMP MITCHELL

Running Back The Citadel 4th Yr.
Ht: 5-9 Wt: 188 Born: 3/15/59
Acquisition: Ninth round choice 1981

PRO: Stump Mitchell is considered by many to be not only one of the finest kick returners in the league, but the best reserve running back in the NFL as well, and he has the numbers to prove it. "Whether it be at the line of scrimmage or on special teams, Stump continued to answer the bell when we needed him," comments head coach Jim Hanifan. With Ottis Anderson injured in the first quarter vs San Francisco (9/18), Stump entered the game and rolled to 123 yards on just eight attempts, including romps of 46 and 33 yards to set up Cardinal scores. He then showed a national TV audience his wares with a 108-yard performance vs N.Y. Giants (11/24), and had the longest kickoff return in the NFC in '83 with a 66-yard effort vs Dallas (9/11). In his first NFL start, he rambled for 145 yards vs Philadelphia (12/5) in 1982, including a 32-yard TD burst to break the game open. Stump enjoyed an unparalleled 1981 rookie year with one of the finest seasons as a kick returner in league history. Earning a spot on the Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie Team, Stump broke or tied eight club records and four NFL marks, among them a new NFL record for combined kick return yardage (1,737), most combined kick returns in a game (13 vs Atlanta, 10/18), and most kickoff returns (55) and yards (1,292) by a rookie. His 50-yard punt return for a TD was instrumental in a 40-30 win over Washington (9/20), and he returned a kickoff 100 yards for a score in the final preseason game vs Chicago (8/29). Evidence of his determination and value is by the simple fact that from his first season through the latter part of the 1983 campaign, Stump had returned 105 consecutive punts without a fair catch. GAMES: 1981: 16(0), 1982: 9(1), 1983: 15(1) TOTALS: 40(2).

COLLEGE: Stump's senior total of 1,647 yards was second in the nation in 1980 behind George Rogers as he totalled 4,062 yards in his career. He gained more than 100 yards in 20 of his 39 games and was the Southern Conference Player of the Year in 1980. An Honorable Mention All-American, Stump played in the Senior Bowl and Blue-Gray games.

PERSONAL: An All-American and All-State performer at Camden County High, Stump was the Club's United Way Spokesman in 1982 and won the Chuck Drulis Award for his work in the St. Louis community. Nicknamed 'Stump' by his brother at an early age, his real name is Lyvonia Albert Mitchell. Stump is active with the Boy Scouts of American and resides in Kingsland, Georgia.

WAYNE MORRIS

Running Back SMU 9th Year
Ht: 6-0 Wt: 208 Born: 5 3 54
Acquisition: Fifth round choice 1976

PRO: "You look up the word 'unselfish' in the dictionary," says Cardinal QB Neil Lomax, "and you'll see his picture. He's probably one of the most valuable players on our team. He does everything for you: block, get the tough yards when you need it, catch the screen pass. I really respect the man." That comment in itself gives an idea of Wayne's value to the Cardinals, ever since he became the starting fullback in 1977. Morris had the lowest rushing output of his career in 1983, but his leadership and example were of intangible worth to the club. Voted the team MVP in 1982, he had a streak of 288 carries without a fumble, and currently has lost just three fumbles in his last 553 carries. The Cardinals' all-time leader with 37 TD's rushing, Morris scored 3 TD's vs New Orleans (10/5) in 1980. After playing halfback in 1978, he switched to fullback in '79 to team with Ottis Anderson, and earned a game ball when he scored the tying and winning TD's vs Houston (10/7). He established a club record with 36 rushing attempts in 1978 vs Washington (11/19), and in 1977 gained a career-high 182 yards on 27 carries vs Minnesota (11/6) and scored four TD's on the ground vs New Orleans (10/23). GAMES: 1976: 14(1), 1977: 12(7), 1978: 13(13), 1979: 15(15), 1980: 16(16), 1981: 16(13), 1982: 9(8), 1983: 15(11), TOTALS: 110(84)

COLLEGE: An All-Southwest Conference selection his senior year, Wayne rolled up a 201-yard effort vs Texas in 1975 and left SMU after setting a school record with 3,044 rushing yards. His 800 yards as a senior earned him a spot in the Blue-Gray classic.

PERSONAL: Nicknamed "J.R." for his successful business dealings in Dallas, Wayne attended South Oak Cliff High, the same institution that produced San Francisco 49er Tom Collier and Dallas Cowboys Harvey Martin and Michael Downs. Born in Dallas, Wayne is single and still resides there.

LEE NELSON

Safety Florida State 9th Year
Ht: 5-10 Wt: 185 Born: 1 30 54
Acquisition: Fifteenth-round draft choice

PRO: Since Lee Nelson was the 420th player selected in the 1976 NFL draft, the Cardinals have drafted 16 defensive backs to date, and Nelson is still the starting strong safety. Coming off perhaps the best season of his career, Lee led the team in tackles and fumble recoveries in '83 and was again superb defending the run. On the third play of the game, he scooped up a fumble and raced 36 yards for the go-ahead score vs Kansas City (10/2) and kicked off the season with 14 tackles vs New Orleans (9/4). Lee played safety in 1981 and '82 after five seasons at corner-back, and was voted the club's Most Improved Player for 1981. Nelson's career began abruptly when, as a rookie CB in 1976, earned his first start vs Dallas (10/17) and Roger Staubach promptly threw at him 18 times in a 21-17 Cardinal victory. He had a career-high four interceptions in 1977 and had seen duty as a kickoff and punt returner. Lee has shown his versatility on special teams with a 43-yard kickoff return in 1976 vs San Diego (9/26) and a 77-yard punt return vs Chicago (12/16) in 1979. He has a career punt return average of 16.2 on 6 attempts. GAMES: 1976: 14(2), 1977: 10(8), 1978: 16(1), 1979: 16(0), 1980: 16(10), 1981: 15(15), 1982: 8(7), 1983: 16(16), TOTALS: 111(59)

COLLEGE: After one year at Pensacola Junior College where he played both football and baseball, Lee went to Florida State and after one year as a walk-on with the football team, earned a scholarship and went on to have a fine career and played in the American Bowl.

PERSONAL: Born in Kissimmee, Florida, Lee attended Melbourne High where he starred in both football and baseball. Active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Lee resides in Talahassee, Florida with his wife, Cathy, and children Kyle Lee and Kelbe Lynn (12/2/77).

NEIL O'DONOGHUE

Placekicker Auburn 8th Year
Ht: 6-6 Wt: 210
Acquisition: Signed as free agent 10/16/80

PRO: "Neil battled back and showed a toughness and determination that you like to see in a football player," says head coach Jim Hanifan. "He came through and hit some big field goals for us this year." Although he ran into some inconsistency, Neil set a Cardinal record with a 52-yard FG vs Tampa Bay (10/16) and duplicated the feat vs Minnesota (10/30) just two games later. Neil connected on a key FG late in the game vs Seattle (11/13), and hit from 25 yards out in a driving rain with only 21 seconds remaining in a 10-6 win over the N.Y. Giants (12/4). Coming through in pressure situations is nothing new to this rangy kicker. He nailed a 48-yarder with 31 seconds left in 1982 vs Chicago (12/19) in a 10-7 victory and in a 1981 win over Dallas (10/4), he recovered his own opening kickoff on the Cowboys nine-yard line to set up a score, then hammered home the winning points from 37 yards out with 23 seconds left for a 20-17 Cardinal win. Neil established a Buccaneer record with 64 points in 1978, and added a club-record 49-yard FG and the game-winning and division-clinching FG in the 1979 finale vs Kansas City (12/16). GAMES: 1977: 5, *1978: 15, *1979: 16, 1980: 10, 1981: 16, 1982: 8, 1983: 16, TOTALS 86. CARDINALS TOTAL: 50.

COLLEGE: An All-American soccer player at St. Bernard College, Neil transferred to Auburn and set a school record with a 57-yard FG in 1976. In his two seasons, he made 23 of 43 FG attempts, hit on 32 of 33 conversions and scored 101 points.

PERSONAL: Born in Dublin, Ireland, Neil played soccer, rugby, and hurling in his native country. He and his wife, Laura, live in Indian Rocks Beach, Florida with their daughter, Daeja (12/14/82.)

CHET PARLAVECCHIO

Linebacker Penn State 2nd Year
Ht: 6-2 Wt: 225 Born: 2 14 60
Acquisition: Signed as free agent 10 6 83

PRO: Joining the Cardinals after five weeks of the '83 season, Chet quickly became a fixture on special teams as a hustling, powerful, enthusiastic player, capable of filling in at linebacker as well. He has the mobility and strength to play in the NFL, but with the Cardinals' LB corps, he's up against one of the youngest, most talented units in the league. Chet was Green Bay's sixth choice in the '82 draft but spent the entire season on the Injured Reserve List. GAMES: 1983: 9(0).

COLLEGE: Known for his aggressiveness and hustle, Chet co-captained the Penn State squad in 1981 and was voted the Outstanding Defensive Player-of-the-Game in the 1982 East-West Shrine game.

PERSONAL: A native of Newark, New Jersey, Chet attended Seton Hall Prep in South Orange where he was an All-American linebacker and New Jersey Player-of-the-Year in 1977. He has a degree in Physical Education from PSU and resides in West Orange, New Jersey.

BENNY PERRIN

Safety Alabama 3rd Year
Ht: 6-2 Wt: 175 Born: 10 20 59
Acquisition: Third round (A) choice 1982

PRO: To give you an idea of the youth and talent that the Cardinals' defense possesses, take a look at Benny Perrin. Since his first start as a rookie in 1982, Benny has called the defensive signals and been a major factor in the resurgence of the team's defensive prowess. "For the second year, Benny showed us what a fine football player he is," comments head coach Jim Hanifan. "He again called the signals, continued to develop his skills, and should be even better in '84." Benny came through with a key theft to preserve the win over Tampa Bay (10/16), then came back the next two weeks with big plays, racing 32 yards with a fumble vs the N.Y. Giants (10/24), and intercepting two passes in a 41-31 win over Minnesota (10/30). Benny was named to the NFL All-Rookie Team by Pro Football Weekly and the Pro Football Writers' Association in 1982, and shared team honors for rookie of the year with offensive lineman Luis Sharpe. GAMES: 1982: 9(9), 1983: 16(16), TOTALS: 25(25).

COLLEGE: A versatile athlete who played every position in the Alabama defensive backfield, Benny picked off two Auburn passes in Bear Bryant's record-setting 315th career win, and returned an interception for a TD in the 1982 Senior Bowl. He also played shortstop on the Tide's baseball team.

PERSONAL: Born in Orange County, California, Benny attended Decatur High in Alabama and received scholarship offers in football, baseball, and basketball as well as being a high school All-American quarterback. He and his wife, Debbie, reside in Decatur.

DANNY PITTMAN

Wide Receiver Wyoming 5th Year
Ht: 6-2 Wt: 205 Born: 4/3/58
Acquisition: Waivers - N.Y. Giants, 11/2/83

PRO: Danny was a late season addition to the roster when the Cardinals claimed him via waivers from the N.Y. Giants. Hampered by a slight hamstring injury, Danny saw limited action but did catch passes in each of the final two games of the season. The Giant's fourth-round choice in the 1980 draft, he saw action at wide receiver, defensive back, and on punt and kick return units as well. He has good speed and runs precise routes, and will get a good look in 1984. GAMES: 1980: 11(7), 1981: 8(0), 1982: 8(0), 1983: 4(0), TOTALS: 31(7).

COLLEGE: Danny began his collegiate career at Pasadena City College, then concluded with two years at Wyoming where he won Honorable Mention All-American and All-Western Athletic Conference honors as a senior. A wide receiver and kick returner in college, he played in both the East-West and Senior Bowl games.

PERSONAL: Born in Memphis, Tennessee, Danny attended John Muir High School and still resides in his hometown of Pasadena, California.

ART PLUNKETT

Tackle Nevada-Las Vegas 4th Yr.
Ht: 6-7 Wt: 262 Born: 3 8 59
Acquisition: Claimed on waivers, 10 28 81

PRO: With the offensive line injury-riddled the first part of the '83 campaign, Art started four contests and proved a valuable commodity throughout the season. At 6-7, 262 pounds, he knows how to utilize his size and can play both the tackle and guard positions. A fine special teams player, Art directly contributed to a 10-7 win over Chicago (12/19) in 1982 when he blocked a Bears' field goal try and saw considerable action at left tackle in the final eight games of 1981. The L.A. Rams selected Art on the eighth round of the 1981 draft, but placed him on the Injured Reserve List during the preseason with a back injury. GAMES: 1981: 8(0), 1982: 9(0), 1983: 16(4), TOTALS: 33(4).

COLLEGE: Art played four seasons at UNLV and was highly-rated for his potential. He capped a fine collegiate career by earning honorable mention All-America honors his senior year.

PERSONAL: Born in Chicago, Illinois, Art attended Skyline High in Salt Lake City, Utah where he was an All-State defensive end. He and his wife, Jeri, reside in Henderson, Nevada where is completing work on a degree in Hotel Administration.

Additional statistics: blocked one field goal 1982.

TOOTIE ROBBINS

Tackle East Carolina 3rd Year
Ht: 6-4 Wt: 278 Born: 6 2 58
Acquisition: Fourth round choice 1982

PRO: Once he shook off some nagging hamstring problems, Tootie picked up where he left off in 1982 and went on to finish up with another solid season at tackle. "Tootie continued to improve last year," comments head coach Jim Hanifan, "and he and Louis Sharpe are destined to be two outstanding linemen for some time to come." One of the biggest bonuses of the '82 draft, Tootie was named to three NFL All-Rookie teams and started every game at right tackle. His impressive showing prior to the 1982 season prompted Dan Dierdorf's move to center when Tootie proved he could handle the tackle spot. He shared the game MVP award when the offense rushed for 203 yards vs Atlanta (11/28) and was instrumental the following week when the Cardinals rolled up 231 yards on the ground without the services of Ottis Anderson in a 23-20 win over Philadelphia (12/5). GAMES: 1982 9(9), 1983: 13(11). TOTALS 22(20).

COLLEGE: Tootie earned Second Team All-American honors as a senior at East Carolina, the highest national recognition by a football athlete in the school's history. He played in the Blue-Gray and Japan Bowl games after his senior season and won the team blocking award as a junior.

PERSONAL: A two-way star at Bertie County High in his native Windsor, North Carolina, James "Tootie" Robbins was an All-State and All-American offensive tackle during his prep career. Active in the United Way, Tootie and his wife, Shaneeta, were married last spring and reside in Florissant, Missouri.

GEORGE SCHMITT

Safety Delaware 2nd Year
Ht: 5-11 Wt: 193 Born: 3/6/61
Acquisition: Sixth round choice 1983

PRO: George Schmitt played in all sixteen games in his rookie season in short yardage situations and as a member of special teams. He had one fumble recovery in the victory vs San Diego last season. Schmitt was switched from cornerback to safety when he joined the Big Red. GAMES: 1983: 16(0).

COLLEGE: Schmitt made the Division I-AA Kodak All-America Team as a cornerback at Delaware. He set school records for career interceptions (22), most interceptions in a season (10) in 1982 and most interceptions in a game (3) in a 1982 playoff game vs C.W. Post.

PERSONAL: George has the distinction of being the second highest NFL draft choice in the history of the University of Delaware behind quarterback Scott Brunner who is currently with the Denver Broncos. Also a trackman at Delaware, he received his B.S. in Business Administration. Schmitt is single and currently resides in Broomall, Pennsylvania.

CARLOS SCOTT

Center Texas-El Paso 2nd Year
Ht: 6-4 Wt: 300 Born: 7/2/60
Acquisition: Seventh round choice 1983

PRO: Scott played in thirteen games last season and started one game at Philadelphia for the injured Randy Clark. He saw quite a bit of duty on the special teams and is a capable backup at both center and guard. GAMES: 1983: 13(1).

COLLEGE: Named to the All-America Team and All-Gulf Coast at UTEP, Scott was also a four-year letterman in football and was named the team's MVP and outstanding lineman in 1982. He was moved to center after playing offensive guard in 1981.

PERSONAL: Scott wears size 15 shoes, 17½ neck, 54 inch chest and 32 inch thighs. He finished second in the discus throw at the 1980 NCAA track and field championships and bench presses 625 pounds. Carlos is single and currently resides in Maryland Heights, Missouri.

CRAIG SHAFFER

Linebacker Indiana State 3rd Yr.
Ht: 6-1 Wt: 230 Born: 3 31 59
Acquisition: Sixth round choice 1982

PRO: Craig Shaffer played in the first nine games as special teamer and reserve linebacker before fracturing his right ankle vs Minnesota and spending the balance of the regular season on Injured Reserve. He suffered a similar injury after five games in his rookie season as well. GAMES: 1982: 5(0), 1983: 9(0).TOTALS: 14(0).

COLLEGE: Shaffer led Indiana State in tackles in both junior and senior years. He was voted Missouri Valley Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 1981 and was named to the honorable mention AP All-America Team in 1980.

PERSONAL: Craig was converted from running back to linebacker in college. He was coached for two years at ISU by present Cardinal backfield coach Dick Jamieson. After earning a college degree in Physical Education, Craig resides in Terre Haute, Indiana.

LUIS SHARPE

Tackle UCLA 3rd Year
Ht: 6-4 Wt: 260 Born: 6/16/60
Acquisition: First round choice 1982

PRO: The concensus of opinion is that Luis Sharpe could develop into one of the finest offensive linemen to wear the Cardinal uniform. "Our offensive line is developing into one of our strong points," comments head coach Jim Hanifan, "and Luis is one of big reasons for our strength up front." Sharpe has lived up to every expectation you have of a first-round draft choice. He's started every contest since his rookie year and more than held his own against some of the finest linemen in the business. Like his bookend tackle Tootie Robbins, Luis was named to the Pro Football Weekly, Pro Football Writers' Association, and Pro Football Digest All-Rookie teams in 1982 and voted the team's co-MVP along with safety Benny Perrin. He and Robbins shared game MVP honors when St. Louis rolled up over 200 yards rushing against a tough Atlanta defense (11/28) in a 23-20 Cardinal win. Luis combines strength, quickness, and an intelligence that placed him a cut above to be perhaps the best lineman on the club. GAMES: 1982: 9(9), 1983: 16(16).TOTALS: 25(25).

COLLEGE: An All-American from UCLA, Luis played at guard and center positions as well and was a three-year starter for the Bruins. He received UCLA's Rookie-of-the-Year award after his freshman season, was second team All-Pac 10 as a sophomore, and earned Honorable Mention All-American honors as a junior before his outstanding senior season. He was the team's MVP in 1981 and played in the 1982 Hula and Olympia Gold Bowl.

PERSONAL: Luis was born in Havana, Cuba, and at the age of six his family moved to Detroit where his father worked in the auto industry. He attended Detroit's Southwestern High where he played both football and basketball and earned Academic All-American honors. Fluent in Spanish and English, Luis has a degree in Political Science and aspires to become involved in politics to help minorities. He and his wife, Kathi, reside in St. Louis with their daughter, Leah (2/1/84).

Additional Statistics: One rush for 11 yards 1983.

MIKE SHUMANN

Wide Receiver Florida State 7th Yr.
Ht: 6-1 Wt: 185 Born: 10 13 55
Acquisition: Waivers-San Francisco, 9 8 83

PRO: In his two seasons with the Cardinals, Mike Shumann has had to play behind three Pro Bowl wide receivers: Mel Gray, Pat Tilley, and now Roy Green. But somehow, when you look down the bench for some help, Mike is right there, comes into the ballgame, and catches the ball when you need the yardage. Mike has played in 25 of the 28 games he's been in with St. Louis, and last year came through with 11 catches, including five in the first two games in only limited action. The six-year veteran came to St. Louis via waivers from San Francisco in 1982, and climaxed the year with four catches and a TD in the playoff loss at Green Bay (1/8). Originally signing as a free agent with Miami in 1978, Mike was released in the final cutdown and signed with San Francisco later in the season. He started all 16 games for the 49ers in 1979, but was released after suffering a knee injury in the 1980 training camp. After a stint with Tampa Bay in 1980, he then re-signed with the 49ers in '81 and started the NFC Championship Game vs Dallas (1/10). GAMES: 1978: 6(0), 1979: 16(16), 1980: 6(0), 1981: 13(1), 1982: 6(0), 1983: 16(0). TOTALS: 63(17) CARDINAL TOTAL: 22(0).

COLLEGE: Mike began his career at Florida State with 43 catches as a freshman and went on to have a four-year total of 135 receptions for 2,326 yards and 16 TD's.

PERSONAL: Born in Louisville, Kentucky, Mike graduated from Leon High in Talahassee, Florida and did not play football until his senior year. A competitive water skier, he has worked his way into the music producing and recording business and has experience as a professional model. Mike has two degrees from FSU, in Art Education and Mass Communications, is single, and resides in Woodside, California.

LEONARD SMITH

Safety McNeese State 2nd Year
Ht: 5-11 Wt: 190 Born: 9/2/60
Acquisition: First round choice, 1983

PRO: Leonard Smith could open some eyes and turn some heads this year after a somewhat frustrating rookie season. He suffered a severe ankle sprain during the preseason that hindered his progress markedly, and it wasn't until midway through the year that he began to show glimpses of the bright future he indeed possesses. "He was limited early," states head coach Jim Hanifan, "but by the season's end, had made a significant contribution to our ballclub." Starting out the campaign at the corner, Leonard was then moved to safety where he'll challenge for a starting spot in '84. He led all non-starting defensive backs in tackles and defensed passes last season. GAMES: 1983: 16(0).

COLLEGE: Rated by many as the top defensive back in the nation in 1982, Leonard was selected a first team All-American in Division I-AA and first team All-Southland Conference his senior year. Blessed with outstanding speed (4.5 in the forty), the Cardinals' No. 1 draft choice in '83 finished a three-year career at McNeese State with seven interceptions and an amazing 17 blocked kicks and had a stretch of 34 consecutive starts since his sophomore year.

PERSONAL: Leonard was born in New Orleans and was an All-State linebacker and running back at Robert Lee High in Baton Rouge. He spent six years restoring a 1949 Chevrolet only to have it totalled in a 1982 accident, and worked part-time as an auto mechanic in his uncle's garage. He is active in area 4-H programs, the Youth Organization of St. Louis, and is involved with the city's Veterans Administration, and has worked with the Boy Scouts of America in St. Louis.

WAYNE SMITH

Cornerback Purdue 5th Year
Ht: 6-0 Wt: 170 Born: 5/9/57
Acquisition: Waivers from Detroit 12/10/82

PRO: Wayne was the Cardinals' answer at right cornerback last year as he had a steady season and led the team in passes defensed with 29. Starting with three different counterparts at one time or another in '83 (Jeff Griffin, Cedric Mack or Lionel Washington), Wayne came up with some big plays last season. He recovered an Eagle fumble deep in St. Louis territory to thwart a scoring attempt in the Cardinals' 14-11 win over Philadelphia (9/25), and came through with a fourth quarter interception to insure the Cardinals 34-24 win over the Super Bowl Champion L.A. Raiders (12/11). Wayne had 24 consecutive starts at Detroit since he was their 11th-round choice in the 1980 draft. After being beaten on some big plays in a Monday Night Game vs N.Y. Jets (12/6) in 1982, he was released later that week, picked up by St. Louis, and things couldn't have worked out better. GAMES: * 1980: 16(8), *1981: 16(16), *1982: 6(5), 1983: 16(16). TOTALS: 54(45), CARDINALS TOTAL: 17(16).

COLLEGE: A three-year starter for the Boilermakers, Wayne began his collegiate career at Purdue as a running back but switched to the defensive backfield and went on to earn second team All-Big Ten honors and played in the Japan Bowl as a senior.

PERSONAL: A native of Chicago, Wayne attended Harper High and was an All-City selection at tailback and cornerback. He holds degrees in Sociology and Management from Purdue and resides in Chicago with his wife, Flavia, and daughter, Chautaqua (2/28/83).

TERRY STIEVE

Guard Wisconsin 8th Year
Ht: 6-2 Wt: 265 Born: 3/10/54
Acquisition: Trade - New Orleans 1/31/78

PRO: Since his arrival in a trade with New Orleans, Terry Stieve has unassumingly become a fixture at guard for the Cardinals. He's started in 68 of 71 games with St. Louis, and aside from missing the entire 1980 season with a knee injury, owns a string of 60 consecutive starts. Having just seven years behind him and being "the elder" of the offensive line gives an indication of the youth in that unit. Since the '81 season he has played on the left side after being the right guard in previous years, and his strength and knowledge are valuable assets among one of the youngest offensive lines in the league. Terry and his fellow linemen shared the game ball after opening the Atlanta defense for 203 yards rushing (11/28) in 1982 and was thought to be on his way to a Pro Bowl season before his unfortunate knee injury in 1980. He was the team's Most Improved Player in 1979 at right guard after coming to St. Louis from the Saints along with defensive end Bob Pollard in January, 1978 for Ike Harris and Conrad Dobler. A sixth-round choice by New Orleans in 1976, Terry started 10 games his rookie year, and after a broken bone in his foot during training camp started the final 10 games in '77. GAMES: *1976: 14(6), *1977: 14(10), 1978: 16(13), 1979: 14(14), 1980: 0(0), 1981: 16(16), 1982: 9(9), 1983: 16(16), TOTALS: 99(84). CARDINALS TOTAL: 71(68) *New Orleans Saints.

COLLEGE: Terry was an All-Big Ten selection at Wisconsin and co-captain his senior year playing in the Blue-Gray and Senior Bowl games.

PERSONAL: A high school All-American in football, Terry ws also a two-time state discus champion and accomplished wrestler in his native Baraboo, Wisconsin. He enjoys hunting and fishing and finished in fourth place in the World's Strongest Man Contest held during the off-season. Terry and his wife, Robyn, and daughter, Lindsey Rae (10/31/83), reside in St.

Louis. Terry was the club's United Way Spokesman for 1981 and was presented the Chuck Drulis Award that year for his involvement and contributions to community affairs in St. Louis.

Additional Statistics: recovered one fumble, 1977.

PAT TILLEY

Wide Receiver Louisiana Tech 9th Yr.
Ht: 5-10 Wt: 178 Born: 2/15/53
Acquisition: Fourth round choice 1976

PRO: No player on the Cardinals' roster has a more impressive list of laurels than Pat Tilley, one of the most deceptive and dependable receivers in the NFL today. Five of the last six years he has caught more than 40 passes and is currently in the Cardinal record books ranking third in career receptions with 365 and fourth in yardage with 5,470. In 1983, Pat caught the longest TD pass of his career on a 71-yard bomb from Neil Lomax vs San Diego (11/20) and came through again vs the L.A. Raiders when, with a seven-point lead and backed up on the 2-yard line, snared a 25-yard catch to give the Cardinals some breathing room and closed the door later in the drive with a 15-yard TD grab in the 34-24 win. His 1981 total of 1,040 yards was the club's first 1,000 yard receiving season in 14 years since Jackie Smith turned the trick with 1,250 in 1967. Pat earned Pro Bowl honors in 1980 with 68 receptions for 966 yards and 6 TD's, a feat he accomplished before a groin injury kept him out of the final two games of the season and possibly prevented him from breaking Bobby Joe Conrad's previous club mark of 73 catches in 1963. He was voted team MVP in 1980, named to the Sports Illustrated and UPI All-NFL teams and had a career-high 10 catches vs Detroit (9/21). An Honorable Mention All-NFC choice in 1978, Pat received the team's Effort Award after the season. He has caught a pass in 76 of the last 79 games and, dating back to the 1978 season opener, has started 87 consecutive ball games, including 12 career 100-yard performances. GAMES: 1976: 13(5), 1977: 14(0), 1978: 16(16), 1979: 16(16), 1980: 14(14), 1981: 16(16), 1982: 9(9), 1983: 16(16), TOTALS: 114(92).

COLLEGE: Pat was a two-time All-Southland Conference player at Louisiana Tech, leading the league in receiving both seasons. In his senior year, his 53 receptions for 926 yards and six TD's ranked fifth in the NCAA.

PERSONAL: A native of Marshall, Texas, Pat attended Fair Park High in Shreveport, Louisiana where he now owns a sporting goods store. He and his wife, Diane, reside in Shreveport with their two daughters, Lee Anne (5/26/78) and Joni Nicole (4/15/80).

LIONEL WASHINGTON

Cornerback Tulane 2nd Year
Ht: 6-0 Wt: 184 Born: 10/21/60
Acquisition: Fourth round (B) choice 1983

PRO: To put in perspective the future that lies ahead of Lionel Washington, you have to realize that not only did he chalk up eight interceptions, the second-most in the NFL in '83, but he acomplished the feat by starting only half the season and coming in as the nickel-back for the first eight games. "Lionel emerged as one of the finest corners in the league," states head coach Jim Hanifan. "We're all excited to see he and the rest of the secondary develop even more this year." Piling up all 8 thefts in the final nine games of '83, including five in the final three contests, Lionel recorded two interceptions and a fumble recovery vs the N.Y. Giants (12/4) and set up the Cardinals' first two TD's with steals in the season finale vs Philadelphia (12/18). His eight interceptions are the most by a Cardinal since Ken Stone had 9 in 1978, and the second-highest total since Larry Wilson pulled in 10 passes in 1966. GAMES: 1983: 16(8).

COLLEGE: A three-year-starter, Lionel co-captained the Green Wave at Tulane and played in the Blue-Gray game after his senior year. With a 4.3 clocking in the 40, he ran the 60, 100, and 440-yard dashes in college and had eight career interceptions.

PERSONAL: Born in New Orleans, Lionel attended Lutcher High in Louisiana where he was an All-State and All-American safety. He received a degree from Tulane in Sports Administration in 1983 and resides in Lutcher with his wife, Denise.

BILL WHITAKER

Safety Missouri 3rd Year
Ht: 6-0 Wt: 182 Born: 11/18/59
Acquisition: Free agent signed 11/3/83

PRO: Coming to the Cardinals late in the year did not hinder Bill's ability to contribute to the team, as he quickly developed into one of the better special teams players and saw duty at both defensive back and linebacker as well. He certainly has his work cut out for him with St. Louis' current wealth of talent at his position. Bill was a special teams standout with Green Bay also, playing in all 16 games his rookie season after they chose him in the seventh round of the 1981 draft. GAMES: 1981: 16(0), 1982: 9(0), 1983: 7(0), TOTALS: 32(0).

COLLEGE: Bill led the Big Eight Conference in interceptions his junior and senior years and was named NEA All-American after his senior season. He left Missouri as the school's record holder with a single-game mark of three interceptions and a career high of 15 thefts.

PERSONAL: Bill attended Rockhurst High in his native hometown of Kansas City where he was an All-Metro and All-State halfback and defensive back. Awarded a degree from Missouri in Journalism in 1982, Bill is single and resides in Kansas City.

DRAFT CHOICES 25TH

CLYDE DUNCAN

Wide Receiver Tennessee
Ht: 6-1 Wt: 192
Acquisition: First round choice

Clyde blossomed into a dangerous big play threat as a fifth-year senior at Tennessee. His exceptional athletic ability and versatility allowed him one-year at DB in '81 before being moved back to WR in '82, playing behind heralded teammates Willie Gault, Mike Miller, and Darryal Wilson. Given the opportunity to be a full-time starter in 1983, Duncan was most effective on reverses and wide-out screens. Size and speed (4.4 forty) alone put him in an elite class along with the fact that he is a hard worker. In his senior year, Duncan snagged 33 passes for 640 yards with an outstanding 19.4 yard average per catch. Six TD receptions left him just one shy of tying the Vols' record for most TD catches in a season. He displayed big play ability twice on simple quick-screens in victories over Alabama (41-34) and Vanderbilt (34-24) in 1983 and dashed through the Tides' defense for an 80-yard score. Duncan also scored on a 57-yard catch and scampered 85 yards on a quick screen vs Vanderbilt to set a Tennessee record for the longest TD pass in the school's history. As a sophomore, he played the back-up role at safety, was redshirted in '80, a reserve WR in '79, and appeared in the Blue-Grey Game in 1983.

Born in Oxon Hill, Maryland, Duncan was an All-American wide receiver at Potomac High and Maryland Player-of-the-Year as a senior. He caught 48 passes for 958 yards and rushed for 808 yards on 115 carries. During his prep career, he played as both a WR and DB. He received his degree in Political Science from Tennessee in 1984.

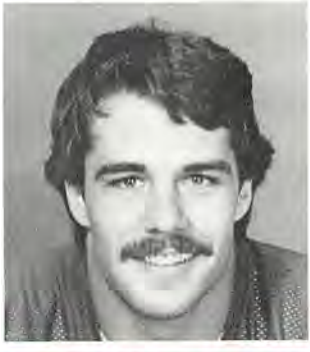
DRAFT CHOICES

DOUG DAWSON

Guard Texas
Ht: 6-3 Wt: 267
Acquisition: Second round choice

Doug was the first recipient of the American Spirit Award, presented to the SWC player who "combines athletic ability, scholarship, leadership, and citizenship", and was a concensus All-American and Lombardi Award finalist. Dawson is a dedicated weight lifter who can bench press over 400 pounds, squats 555, and cleans 345. He was consistently graded above 90 percent in all but two games since becoming a first-stringer in the 1980 Bluebonnet Bowl vs North Carolina. Dawson was the '83 team captain as the Longhorns capped a perfect 11-0 record with the rout of Texas A&M, and as a junior was an AP and UPI Second Team All-SWC. In his college career, he led offensive linemen with a 92 percent blocking grade, scored 98 in the last three games, and produced several key blocks in a 14-12 upset win over Alabama in the 1981 Cotton Bowl.

Doug's father is involved in the petroleum exploration business which could be a reason Doug carries a 3.24 GPA in Petroleum Engineering. He was a High School All-American and Houston area prep Player-of-the-Year in his senior season at Memorial High where he graduated 8th in a class of 575. Doug is active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.



RICK McIVOR

Quarterback Texas
Ht: 6-4 Wt: 210
Acquisition: Third round choice

Rick was the third quarterback overall selected in the draft despite limited playing time in 1983. He possesses good size, moves well, and has a superb arm even though a shoulder ended his season as a starting QB in 1981 and had to sit out the 1982 season with a knee injury. In his freshman year he had 270 yards passing against Baylor, then a school record, and brilliantly engineered a Longhorn victory last year when he entered the game trailing 13-0 and completed 8 of 12 passes for 170 yards and 4 TD's in a 45-13 victory over Texas A & M.

McIvor was a High School All-American at Fort Stockton, Texas, rushing for 427 yards and passing for 990 yards his senior year. He was also a standout in basketball, baseball, and track. While at Texas, Rick majored in Physical Education.

MARTIN BAYLESS

Defensive Back Bowling Green
Ht: 6-2 Wt: 195
Acquisition: Fourth round choice

A former walk-on, Bayless became the Mid-American Conference's all-time interception leader with 27 thefts as he started 45 straight games for the Falcons and was named First Team All-MAC for the past three years and second team in 1980. He almost opted for a basketball career at Iowa State, but received a scholarship after the first football practice at Bowling Green. During his senior year, he led the nation in interceptions with 10 and was 5th on the team with 78 tackles. Against Ohio U. he preserved a 24-20 win with a key pick-off. A pair of thefts and 11 tackles led to a 17-14 win over Miami, and he snagged a season high 2 interceptions vs Fresno State. Martin capped this impressive season in the Blue-Gray Game where he earned Defensive Player-of-the-Game honors after making two key interceptions for the Blue squad, and team MVP by saving the victory on three different occasions. Bayless totalled 74 tackles as a junior and his 5 interceptions ranked 2nd in the MAC. The conference crown was saved when he made an interception near the goal line with 52 seconds left, and led BGU to a 34-30 win over Michigan. As a sophomore he ranked 4th in the nation with 7 int's and in his freshman year tied for the MAC lead with 5 thefts, including two pickoffs in a 7-3 loss to Miami.

Bayless was named All-City and 2nd team All-State at Dayton Delmont High (Ohio). Basketball was his first love as he was named Team MVP in leading his roundball team to an AAA District Championship. Nicknamed "Jumping Bean" for his exceptional leaping ability, Martin majored in Education at Bowling Green.

JEFF LEIDING

Linebacker Texas
Ht: 6-4 Wt: 240
Acquisition: Fifth round (A) choice

Jeff Leiding was a stalwart Longhorn playing middle linebacker for the last two years. His time was split inside and outside as a freshman and sophomore. Even though he missed the first two games of the 1983 season because of a leg injury suffered in a boating accident, he was the second leading tackler on the team and was named to AP, Pro Football Writers' Association Walter Camp and Football News All-America First Teams.

At Hickman Mills High School in Independence, Missouri, Leiding was high school All-America and All-State as a sophomore and junior. He was also All-State as a senior at Union High School in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Jeff was a Communications major at Texas.

JOHN GOODE

Tight End Youngstown State
Ht: 6-2 Wt: 222
Acquisition: Fifth round (B) choice

John Goode had an outstanding season in '83 with 46 receptions for 974 yards, an outstanding 21.2 average per reception, and registered 11 touchdowns. In ten games of his senior season he averaged over four receptions and nearly 100 yards receiving per game. He has superb leaping ability and runs a 4.6 forty. Extremely powerful, John recorded a team record 615 lb. squat lift, 275 lift in power clean , and 300 lb. in bench press.

At Benedictine High School in Cleveland, Goode earned All-Ohio honors and played varsity baseball, basketball and ran on the track team.

ROD CLARK

Linebacker Southwest Texas State
Ht: 6-2 Wt: 228
Acquisition: Sixth round choice

Rod Clark played defensive end for four seasons and helped lead Southwest Texas State to Division II National Championships in '81 and '82 and leading them to a four-year record of 44-6. He was named first team All-Lone Star Conference his senior year and led the team with 8 QB sacks. With their kicker injured, Clark went 11 of 15 extra points, and 2 of 2 in field goal attempts. He was also a member of the school's track team, with a 13.8 clocking in 110-meter high hurdles.

Rod attended Waller High School in Hempstead, Texas. At Southwest Texas, he majored in Criminal Justice.

FALANIKO NOGA

Linebacker Hawaii
Ht: 6-1 Wt: 230
Acquisition: Eighth round (A) choice

Falaniko Noga started playing football at the age of 15 when his family moved from American Samoa to Honolulu. At Hawaii he was a four-year starter after becoming the first freshman ever to earn All-Western Athletic Conference honors. The first three seasons he played nosetackle, for which he was selected twice to the All-Western Athletic Conference, then moved to linebacker his senior year. Noga had an amazing performance vs New Mexico as a freshman: eight unassisted tackles, including five for losses totalling 47 yards; blocked two kicks, including a field goal attempt that was converted to a Hawaii TD; caused a fumble and finally, deflected a pass. He runs just under 4.6 in the 40 and has run 10.8 in the 100.

Falaniko majored in Industrial Engineering while at Hawaii.

BOB PAULLING

Kicker Clemson
Ht: 6-2 Wt: 188
Acquisition: Eighth round (B) choice

Bob Paulling was one of Clemson's greatest and most accurate kickers ever. He set the Clemson record for extra point percentage (.892) and field goal percentage (.829) in his career with the Tigers. In addition, he hit 11/12 from 40-49 yards in his career and was 34/39 inside the 40. An All-ACC placekicker in 1983, Paulling led the league in field goals per game, field goal percentage, kick-scoring, and overall scoring. New Clemson records were set for consecutive extra points in a career (70), most extra points in a career (107), most extra points attempted in a career (109) and career extra point (.982) and field goal percentage (.829). In a victory over North Carolina in 1982, he was the only Clemson kicker in history to have three field goals over 40 yards in the same game. Paulling had three field goals against North Carolina in each of the last two games between the two schools and against Western Carolina had a career high 11 points on three field goals and two extra points. He was awarded honorable mention All-American by AP and honorable mention All-American by Football News and was a starter in the Blue-Gray game last year. During the Tigers' national championship season (1982), Bob was 'short' field goal and extra point man.

Between field goals, Bob majored in Electrical Engineering.

JOHN WALKER

Running Back Texas
Ht: 6-0 Wt: 205
Acquisition: Ninth round choice

John Walker is an outstanding athlete with all the tools to be an excellent back: good size, break-away speed, good agility and balance. A 1982 knee injury hampered playing time after an impressive 1981 season when he rushed for a 4.6 average and six TD's as a sophomore. His best game was against Texas A&M with 178 yards rushing, including a 60 yard TD romp.

As a senior at Killeen High School (Texas), Walker rushed for 1,100 yards. He was also a top track performer high jumping 7-0 in competition. John majored in Physical Education at Texas.

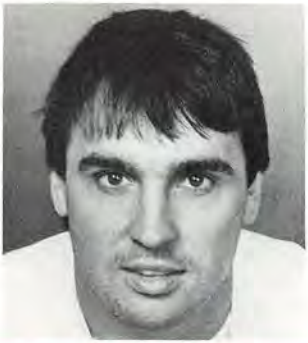
DRAFT CHOICES 25TH



MARK SMYTHE

Defensive Tackle Indiana
Ht: 6-3 Wt: 265
Acquisition: Tenth round choice

Mark Smythe is strong and very quick for a defensive lineman. He registered a team-high six tackles behind the line of scrimmage for 40 yards last year at Indiana. Smythe was team co-captain in 1983 and played in both the Hula Bowl and Senior Bowl. For his role in the 1982 win over Northwestern (30-0), he was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week. He missed the 1981 season after undergoing back surgery but came back his junior season and collected 11 tackles behind the line of scrimmage for 51 yards in losses. Since his first year in college Smythe has added 20 pounds and bench presses over 400 lbs.

Mark was All-Conference and All-State at North High School in Bloomington, Indiana. While at Indiana, he majored in Physical Education.

KYLE MACKEY

Quarterback East Texas State
Ht: 6-3 Wt: 220
Acquisition: Eleventh round choice

Kyle Mackey possesses all the physical tools for an NFL quarterback. Scouting reports grade him highly for size, arm and intelligence. He passed for a career 42 TD's and was named Lone Star Conference offensive back of the year in 1982. Mackey holds school single game records for completions, as well as career passing and total yardage average per game. In 1983 he led his team to an 8-2 record.

Kyle is the son of former NFL and AFL player Dee Mackey (New York Jets, San Francisco 49ers, Baltimore Colts). At Alpine High School in Gladewater, Texas, he played quarterback and free safety. Kyle majored in Physical Education.

PAUL PARKER

Guard Oklahoma
Ht: 6-3 Wt: 280
Acquisition: Twelfth round choice

Paul Parker possesses startling quickness and mobility for his size and has played at both guard and tackle. He was selected first team All-Big Eight in 1982 and was second team Football News All-America. Parker played defensive tackle as a freshman and came back after redshirting the 1980 season by dropping 40 pounds and moving to offense.

At Tulsa High School in Oklahoma he was a State High School wrestling champion. Paul majored in Business Management at Oklahoma.

Cardinal History

The Football Cardinals have the distinction of being the oldest continuously run professional football franchise in the nation. A charter member of the National Football League, the Cardinals celebrate their 25 year anniversary in St. Louis since moving from Chicago in 1960.

Founded by the late Chris O'Brien in 1898, the team began as a group gathered to play football on Chicago's South Side. The team gained long-standing identification when O'Brien bought used jerseys from the University of Chicago with the famed Chicago maroon faded.

"That's not maroon, it's Cardinal red," said O'Brien – and the Cardinals it has been ever since.

The team grew in the Chicago area until finally, in 1920, it became one of eleven charter members of the American Professional Football League. The Cardinals won their first NFL title in 1925 when the league expanded to 20 teams.

A Chicago dentist, Dr. David Jones, bought the team in 1929. Then in 1932 the organization was acquired by Charles W. Bidwill, father of the present owner.

The team experienced some difficult years in the 1930's and early 1940's until in 1947 success was realized. Coached by Jim Conzelman and boasting a nucleus of the "dream backfield" of Paul Christman, Marshall Goldberg, Pat Harder and Charley Trippi, the Cardinals won the Western Division title, then downed the Philadelphia Eagles 28-21, for the NFL championship.

Before having an opportunity to participate in the victory, Bidwill died in April, 1947, with ownership passing to his widow. Upon her death 15 years later, control moved to sons Charles W. Bidwill, Jr. and William V. Bidwill.

In 1972 Bill Bidwill and his family became the sole owner with Bill becoming managing general partner. On July 1, 1979, incorporation of the company was accomplished with Bidwill continuing as chief executive officer.

It was in 1974, after 14 years in St. Louis, that the Cardinals captured the NFC Eastern Division championship under head coach Don Coryell and went to the playoffs with a 10-4 record, only to lose 30-14 to the Vikings in their first playoff appearance since 1948.

Again, 1975 brought a division title but another playoff loss, this time to the Rams, December 27, in Los Angeles, 35-23.

Disappointingly the Big Red were close, but missed playoff berths in 1976 and 1977 after which a frustrated Coryell resigned. Perhaps even more surprising was the announcement March 2, 1978, that the new Big Red coach was the legendary Bud Wilkinson. He was returning to the football field this time at the professional level, some 15 years after his glory days at Oklahoma came to an end in 1963.

Before completing his second season, Wilkinson was released as head coach with three games remaining in 1979. Larry Wilson was named interim coach. Then on January 30, 1980, Jim Hanifan the great offensive assistant with the Cardinals under Coryell, was named head coach.

Entering his fifth season as head coach, Hanifan has compiled winning seasons each of the last two years, including a playoff berth in the 1982 season. Last year's team rebounded after a dismal 1-5 start to win 7 of their last 10 games and finish with a respectable record of 8-7-1.

The tradition of the Big Red has been rich as twelve members of the Football Cardinals have been enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. They are: Charles Bidwill, Guy Chamberlain, Jimmy Conzelman, Paddy Driscoll, Walt Kiesling, Curley Lambeau, Dick "Night Train" Lane, Ollie Matson, Ernie Nevers, Jim Thorpe, Charley Trippi and Larry Wilson, who was the most recent selection to the Hall of Fame in 1978.

GAME FOUR — September 25

Veterans Stadium 64,465

St. Louis 14 - Philadelphia 11

A fired-up Cardinal defense and equally-impressive showings by O.J. Anderson, (29 for 133 yards) and Jim Hart (12-19, 123 yards, 2 TD) took St. Louis to its first win of the season with a 14-11 victory over the Eagles. The offense put the points on the scoreboard, but it was the defense that put tremendous pressure on Philadelphia's quarterbacks and shut down the Eagles' running game to just 78 yards.
